DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised of the following:

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on January 15, 2017, there was an abuse of authority when Police Officer Anthony Stabile frisked an intoxicated man who was having an encounter with the police. The man was not under arrest, and CCRB found that there was no reasonable suspicion that the man possessed a weapon that would justify a frisk.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated) are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
