DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated for Inner Mata an allegation from October 10, 2013, of not appearing at a Traffic Violations Bureau proceeding.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated for Inner Mata an allegation from August 5, 2015, of not appearing at a Traffic Violations Bureau proceeding.
3. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated for Inner Mata allegations from August 13, 2015, for leaving the scene of a traffic incident and violating a department rule by failing to request a patrol supervisor. Inner Mata was driving a three-wheeled scooter and bumped the front bumper of a taxi cab. Inner Mata checked his scooter for damage, and then told the taxi driver that he was handling an emergency and drove off, without notifying a supervisor.
4. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has pending an allegation that on or about January 20, 2021 Inner Mata failed to notify IAB in a timely manner regarding a missing department cell phone.
5. As of February 19, 2021, the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board has pending allegations for Inner Mata of Abuse-entry of premises, Abuse-Other and Abuse-Threat re: removal to hospital. These allegations relate to an incident that occurred on October 30, 2020 and were reported on November 25, 2020.
