

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Judith Le	Team: Squad #2	CCRB Case #: 201800966	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Force	<input type="checkbox"/> Discourt.	<input type="checkbox"/> U.S.
			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Abuse	<input type="checkbox"/> O.L.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Injury
Incident Date(s) Friday, 01/26/2018 4:30 PM	Location of Incident: § 87(2)(b)	Precinct: 47	18 Mo. SOL 7/26/2019	EO SOL 7/26/2019
Date/Time CV Reported Fri, 01/26/2018 11:32 PM	CV Reported At: IAB	How CV Reported: Phone	Date/Time Received at CCRB Mon, 02/05/2018 10:59 AM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Witness(es)	Home Address
§ 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. POM Jared Faber	07590	956630	047 PCT
2. POM Shayne Williams	11847	956333	047 PCT
3. POM Matthew Disilvestre	15513	960466	047 PCT
4. POM Ryan Swift	10866	956287	047 PCT
5. SGT Robert Durst	03362	946684	047 PCT

Witness Officer(s)	Shield No	Tax No	Cmd Name
1. POM Alexander Lambros	11762	956033	047 PCT
2. POM Giuseppe Gentile	09948	952773	047 PCT
3. POM Joseph Alcoser	08317	949981	047 PCT
4. POM Michael Abbruzzese	06138	955701	047 PCT
5. POM Gregory Flores	07931	955923	047 PCT
6. POM Kevin Cedeno	07789	960346	047 PCT
7. POM Yerald Perez	22026	959887	047 PCT
8. POM Fatmir Vucetovic	559	955644	047 PCT
9. POM Alex Chen	22641	954635	047 PCT
10. POM Gerard Otoole	20609	959416	047 PCT
11. SGT Howard Roth	03468	949582	047 PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A.POM Shayne Williams	Force: Police Officer Shayne Williams used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
B.SGT Robert Durst	Abuse: Sergeant Robert Durst forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.	§ 87(2)(b)
C.SGT Robert Durst	Force: Sergeant Robert Durst used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
D.POM Jared Faber	Force: Police Officer Jared Faber used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)
E.POM Matthew Disilvestre	Force: Police Officer Matthew Disilvestre used physical force against § 87(2)(b)	§ 87(2)(b)

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
F.POM Ryan Swift	Force: Police Officer Ryan Swift used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
G.POM Jared Faber	Force: Police Officer Jared Faber tightly handcuffed § 87(2)(b)
H.SGT Robert Durst	Abuse: Sergeant Robert Durst refused to provide his name to § 87(2)(b)

Case Summary

On January 26, 2018, § 87(2)(b) filed a complaint with IAB. On February 5, 2018, it was received by CCRB under IAB Log #18-4137 (original log #18-0633).

On January 26, 2018, at approximately 3:37 p.m., § 87(2)(b) and her daughter, § 87(2)(b) got into an argument at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. § 87(2)(b) shoved § 87(2)(b) and in response, § 87(2)(b) took her § 87(2)(b) granddaughter, § 87(2)(b), went into her bedroom, and locked the door. Shortly thereafter, both § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) called 911.

At approximately 4:30 p.m., Sergeant Robert Durst, Police Officer Jared Faber, Police Officer Shayne Williams, Police Officer Ryan Swift, Police Officer Matthew DiSilvestre, Police Officer Giuseppe Gentile, and Police Officer Alexander Lambros of the 47th Precinct responded. After speaking to § 87(2)(b) who had custody of § 87(2)(b), Sgt. Durst asked § 87(2)(b) to hand her granddaughter over. When § 87(2)(b) did not immediately do so, Police Officer Williams allegedly grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her arm and allegedly pushed her into the hallway, causing her to fall on a pile of boxes (Allegation A: Force – Physical Force, § 87(2)(g)). Police Officer Faber retrieved § 87(2)(b) from the bedroom, and § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) left the apartment. After conferring with EMS, Sergeant Durst informed § 87(2)(b) she was going to the hospital (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority – Forcible Removal to Hospital, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) refused to go, and Sergeant Durst, Police Officer Faber, Police Officer Swift, and Police Officer DiSilvestre used force to place her in handcuffs (Allegations C, D, E, and F: Force – Physical Force, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) was then escorted to the elevator by Police Officer Faber, who allegedly tightened her handcuffs (Allegation G: Force – Handcuffs too tight, § 87(2)(g)). While walking to the ambulance, § 87(2)(b) asked Sergeant Durst for his name, which he allegedly did not provide (Allegation H: Abuse of Authority – Refusal to provide name, § 87(2)(g)). § 87(2)(b) was then taken to § 87(2)(b) for a psychiatric evaluation.

Body-worn camera (BWC) footage was provided from the BWCs of Police Officer Faber, Police Officer Swift, Police Officer DiSilvestre, Police Officer Lambros, Police Officer Gentile, and Police Officer Williams, all of the 47th Precinct. The videos are time-stamped and contain audio. The full videos are attached to IA #s 27-32 (Board Review #1-6) and are transcribed in Board Review #s 22-26. Relevant portions are embedded in the relevant sections below.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Force: Police Officer Shayne Williams used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement on February 7, 2018 (Board Review #7). She was interviewed at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx on February 28, 2018. Police Officer Faber was interviewed at CCRB on May 17, 2018. Sergeant Durst was interviewed at the CCRB on May 25, 2018.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) and her daughter, § 87(2)(b) have had a long-standing custody dispute over § 87(2)(b)'s daughter, § 87(2)(b). While in the past, § 87(2)(b) has lived with her, § 87(2)(b) does not have legal custody of the child. Police have been called on several occasions to address this dispute. On January 26, 2018, after § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) got into an argument, § 87(2)(b) took § 87(2)(b) into her bedroom and locked the door. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) then both proceeded to call 911. EMS responded first to the incident, marked the job as Emotionally Disturbed Person (EDP), and then made several requests for police assistance.

The EVENT information for EVENT #§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review #8) shows that at <3:42 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called 911 to report that her mother had locked her granddaughter inside of her bedroom and was trying to fight § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stated that her mother was acting erratic.

The EVENT information for EVENT #§ 87(2)(b) (Board Review #9) shows that at <3:37 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called 911 to report an argument with her daughter. She stated she locked herself in a bedroom, and said there were possible weapons on scene. The call ended. At <3:51 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called 911 again to say she was still waiting for officers. She said that her daughter was trying to fight her over her granddaughter, and had hit her with the baby. § 87(2)(b) said she would not open the door to her bedroom with her granddaughter until her daughter left. At <4:19 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called again to say she was still waiting, and requested a “white shirt.”

At <4:22 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called 911 to say that her mother had her daughter in the room, and her mother was refusing to give her daughter back. She stated her mother was making threats and trying to fight her. At <4:51 p.m.>, § 87(2)(b) called 911 again and said that her mother wanted to fight her and was holding her § 87(2)(b) daughter hostage. She stated her mother had a mental history and could be violent.

At <4:54 p.m.>, EMS was dispatched. At <5:07 p.m.>, EMS requested an RMP for an EDP. At 5:16 p.m., EMS again requested an RMP for an EDP. At <5:22 p.m.>, EMS stated “Please send RMP, EMS arrived, waiting for police department . . . possible hostage situation. Where’s RMP?”

§ 87(2)(b) stated that she first called 911 to report that her daughter had pushed her and she had locked herself in the bedroom. After waiting for “a long time,” § 87(2)(b) heard a knock on the bedroom door and a voice who said it was the police. § 87(2)(b) opened her door and saw approximately eight officers, who she invited inside her bedroom. Sergeant Durst and Police Officer DiSilvestre instructed § 87(2)(b) to get § 87(2)(b) ready, because she did not have custody. § 87(2)(b) began to get § 87(2)(b) ready, but then paused and told the officers she first wanted § 87(2)(b) to leave the apartment. In response, the only black officer present, Police Officer Williams, grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her left forearm and swung her into the hallway. There were four boxes in the hallway, and § 87(2)(b) fell onto the boxes with her body. Police Officer Williams then went back into the bedroom, and brought out § 87(2)(b).

Police Officer Faber stated that he and Sergeant Durst responded to a family dispute, that was upgraded to EDP while they were on route. Upon arriving on scene, he saw two officers speaking to § 87(2)(b) who told the officers that § 87(2)(b) had locked herself in her bedroom with § 87(2)(b)'s daughter, § 87(2)(b). The two officers went to the door and instructed § 87(2)(b) to open the door. After issuing instructions two or three times, § 87(2)(b) opened the door. She was angry, yelling and screaming, and refused to give up the child. The officers went back and forth with § 87(2)(b) for a minute or two. During this time, § 87(2)(b) was lying on the bed. At some point, the officers persuaded § 87(2)(b) to move out of the way, and an officer took § 87(2)(b) out of the room and to EMS. At no point did Police Officer Faber see § 87(2)(b) get pushed out of the bedroom or fall on any boxes.

Sergeant Durst stated that while en route, the job was upgraded from EDP to hostage situation. Upon arriving on scene, Sergeant Durst saw § 87(2)(b) who told him that § 87(2)(b) had locked herself in the room with § 87(2)(b), and was off her medication, which she took for back pain. Sergeant Durst and the officers knocked on the bedroom door and spoke to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was upset with § 87(2)(b) and did not want to give § 87(2)(b) up. Sergeant Durst noted § 87(2)(b) not § 87(2)(b) had custody of § 87(2)(b), and tried to convince her to give her granddaughter back. § 87(2)(b) refused to do so. The officers then had to dress § 87(2)(b), and Police Officer Faber returned her to § 87(2)(b). Shortly thereafter, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) left the premises.

BWC footage from Police Officer Williams' camera (Board Review #4), embedded below, shows officers making brief physical contact with § 87(2)(b) while escorting her out of the bedroom, but no physical force of the nature or extent she alleges. Police Officer Williams does not make physical contact with § 87(2)(b).

201800966_20180607_1552_DM.mp4

BWC footage from Police Officer Gentile's camera (Board Review #2), embedded below, shows § 87(2)(b) exiting through the bedroom door followed by Police Officer Swift. Police Officer DiSilvestre then grips § 87(2)(b)'s upper left arm with his left hand, while § 87(2)(b) holds a pillow. The video does not show Police Officer Williams, or any officer, swinging § 87(2)(b) into the hallway, or § 87(2)(b) falling onto the boxes in her hallway. Shortly thereafter, § 87(2)(b) states that she has been shoved, though no such action is observed to be occurring. Police Officer Faber then carries § 87(2)(b) out of the bedroom and down the hallway.

201800966_20180606_1525_DM.mp4

Patrol Guide 221-02 states that Members of Service may use reasonable force to gain control, compliance, or custody of an uncooperative person (Board Review #10).

§ 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Robert Durst forcibly removed § 87(2)(b) to the hospital.

Allegation (C) Force: Sergeant Robert Durst used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Force: Police Officer Jared Faber used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (E) Force: Police Officer Matthew DiSilvestre used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (F) Force: Police Officer Ryan Swift used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that prior to the officers' arrival on scene, EMS had already designated § 87(2)(b) an EDP and asked for police assistance to remove her. After § 87(2)(b) was informed she was being removed to the hospital, she refused to comply.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that, after § 87(2)(b) was taken, § 87(2)(b) returned to her bedroom and was trying to explain to the officers that her granddaughter was underdressed, when Sergeant Durst instructed § 87(2)(b) to, "Come on." § 87(2)(b) asked Sergeant Durst where they were going and Sergeant Durst replied that they were going to the hospital. § 87(2)(b) told Sergeant Durst she did not need to go to the hospital and noted during her CCRB interview that she was very calm that day because she had taken a Xanax, for anxiety, and hydrocodone, for pain. Sergeant Durst replied, "I don't care what you're saying. You're going to the doctor. You're being irrational," and tried to grab § 87(2)(b) pulled her body back. Police Faber then jumped across § 87(2)(b)'s bed, grabbed her by her right arm, and "jumped on [her] back." § 87(2)(b) fell forward onto the bed. Police Officer Swift then grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s left arm and handcuffed her. Police Officer Faber then put his knee in her back and bent her arm, aggravating her pre-existing back pain. § 87(2)(b) began screaming that the officers were hurting her, and the officers instructed her to stop resisting. § 87(2)(b) noted that after the incident her back hurt every time she moved.

Police Officer Faber stated that § 87(2)(b) informed the officers that § 87(2)(b) was off her medication, which Police Officer Faber believed were for bipolar disorder. After speaking with § 87(2)(b) for a minute or two, Sergeant Durst informed § 87(2)(b) that she would be going to the hospital to get checked out. In response, she fled to the back of the bedroom and called 911 to request a "white shirt." Sergeant Durst approached § 87(2)(b) to handcuff her, because she was being non-cooperative. She pulled her arms away and continued to yell and scream. Sergeant Durst then grabbed one arm, and Police Officer Faber stepped over the bed and grabbed her other arm. They then put her hands behind her back and placed her in handcuffs. Police Officer Swift also came over to assist. Once § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed, she stopped resisting. § 87(2)(b) was not tackled, or thrown on the bed. Police Officer Faber did not place his knee in § 87(2)(b)'s back, and did not see any other officers place pressure on her back.

TRI § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #11) submitted by Police Officer Faber states § 87(2)(b) pulled arms away from officers as they were trying to place handcuffs on subject. § 87(2)(b) resisted, used force, was suspected of drug use, and was listed as an emotionally disturbed person. Force used by Police Officer Faber was listed as grabbed subject hands so that subject could be placed in handcuffs for her safety in defense of self, in defense of a member of public, in defense of other MOS, and to overcome resistance or aggression. Subject accepted medical attention and was removed to hospital.

DIR report § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #17) prepared by Police Officer Faber, lists Victim 1 as § 87(2)(b) and the Suspect as § 87(2)(b). The narrative states that officers responded to the location for a family dispute. § 87(2)(b) informed them that she got into a verbal dispute with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) took her daughter and locked her in § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom with her. § 87(2)(b) further stated that § 87(2)(b) takes medication, though she was not sure if she had been taking it lately for her anxiety. Officers were able to get § 87(2)(b) to open the bedroom door without any incident. § 87(2)(b)'s daughter was returned back to her and § 87(2)(b) was taken to a hospital by FDNY EMS for further evaluation.

Sergeant Durst stated that he thought § 87(2)(b) might have been under the influence of narcotics because § 87(2)(b) told him that she took pills. § 87(2)(b) was also acting angry, refused to comply with orders, and not acting “the way a caring grandmother would,” by refusing to give § 87(2)(b) back to her mother. Sergeant Durst then conferred with EMS about § 87(2)(b) going to the hospital and EMS agreed that § 87(2)(b) needed to go to the hospital.

A few minutes later, Sergeant Durst informed § 87(2)(b) that she was going to be removed to the hospital. She replied, “No.” Sergeant Durst tried to explain to § 87(2)(b) that she needed to be checked out by a doctor. § 87(2)(b) again told Sergeant Durst she did not want to go. Sergeant Durst and Police Officer Faber then went to place § 87(2)(b)'s hands behind her back. § 87(2)(b) did not want to comply and kept pulling her arms away. Sergeant Durst instructed § 87(2)(b) not to “fight,” and he grabbed her right arm, and Police Officer Faber took her left arm. The officers did not have to use force against § 87(2)(b). None of the officers placed their knee in her back. § 87(2)(b) was not thrown against the bed. After § 87(2)(b) was placed in handcuffs, she was walked to the elevator, and Sergeant Durst took the stairs. He did not hear anything afterwards about an officer tightening § 87(2)(b)'s handcuffs.

TRI § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #12) submitted by Sergeant Durst states § 87(2)(b) pulled her arm away from officers. She resisted, was suspected of drug use, and was an emotionally disturbed person. Force used by Sergeant Durst was listed as handcuffs in defense of self, defense of member of public, defense of other MOS, and to overcome resistance of aggression. Medical attention was offered to § 87(2)(b) who accepted, and she was removed to the hospital.

BWC footage from Police Officer Swift's camera (Board Review #3), embedded below, shows Sergeant Durst repeatedly telling § 87(2)(b) that she has to go to the hospital. § 87(2)(b) refuses, stating that she has “things to do.” Sergeant Durst tells § 87(2)(b) “Ma’am you have an option. You can either go with us willingly or we can put you in handcuffs.” § 87(2)(b) asks Sergeant Durst why she needs to go to the hospital. He replies that she is acting “irrationally.” § 87(2)(b) then calls 911, stating that she is being forced to be put in handcuffs and brought to a hospital even though she “has a degree.” Sergeant Durst, Police Officer DiSilvestre, Police Officer Gentile, and Police Officer Williams walk slowly toward § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Gentile says, “You’re not under arrest, okay?” § 87(2)(b) responds, “Then, if I’m not under arrest, then I’m not going anywhere. No! Do not pull me!”

Sergeant Durst then grabs § 87(2)(b)'s right arm. Police Officer Faber and Police Officer Swift then jump across the bed. § 87(2)(b) is visible with Police Officer Faber standing behind her and Police Officer DiSilvestre and Sergeant Durst standing in front of her. Police Officer DiSilvestre leans forward and touches § 87(2)(b)'s right hand, trying to maneuver it behind her back so that Police Officer Faber can handcuff her. Handcuffs are heard clicking and § 87(2)(b) says, "Ooooooh." Police Officer Swift reaches out and touches § 87(2)(b)'s shoulder. Police Officer DiSilvestre touches § 87(2)(b)'s left shoulder with his right hand. The video footage does not show § 87(2)(b) against the bed, or officers with the knees in her back. The officers then lead § 87(2)(b) out.

201800966_20180606_1525A_DM.mp4

TRI § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #13) submitted by Police Officer Swift and TRI § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #14) submitted by Police Officer DiSilvestre, both state § 87(2)(b) pulled her arms away from officers. She resisted, used force, was suspected of drug use, and was an emotionally disturbed person. Force used by Police Officer Swift and Police Officer DiSilvestre was listed as handcuffs in defense of self, defense of member of public, defense of other MOS, and to overcome resistance or aggression.

AIDED § 87(2)(b) (Board Review #18) prepared by Police Officer Gentile for § 87(2)(b) states that she was removed to § 87(2)(b) for psychological evaluation.

Patrol Guide 216-01 states when an AIDED person is placed in the care of medical personnel, uniformed Members of Service shall cooperate with ambulance/hospital personnel in every reasonable manner (Board Review #15).

§ 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]

Patrol Guide 221-02 states that Members of Service may use reasonable force to gain control, compliance, or custody of an uncooperative person (Board Review #10).

§ 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]

§ 87(2)(g)

It is undisputed that Police Officer Faber escorted § 87(2)(b) to the elevator, and to the ambulance.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after being taken to the elevator, she tried to tell the other officers that Police Officer Faber was twisting her arm and hurting her. In response, § 87(2)(b) believed that Police Officer Faber tightened her handcuffs because she felt her handcuffs tighten around her wrist, and heard a clicking noise. § 87(2)(b) was then taken to § 87(2)(b). After the incident, § 87(2)(b) observed that both her wrists were red.

Police Officer Faber stated that he escorted § 87(2)(b) to the elevator. He held onto § 87(2)(b)'s arm under her armpit. § 87(2)(b) accused Police Officer Faber of twisting her arm. Police Officer Faber replied that he was not twisting, just holding § 87(2)(b)'s arm. At no point did he tighten § 87(2)(b)'s handcuffs, or do anything to her handcuffs in the elevator. Police Officer Faber reviewed BWC footage and stated that the clicking noise was not a result of him tightening § 87(2)(b)'s handcuffs. He thought the clicking noise could have been the sound of § 87(2)(b) moving her hands in the elevator, and causing her handcuffs to move.

BWC from Police Officer Faber's camera (Board Review #6), embedded below, shows § 87(2)(b) entering the elevator with Police Officer Faber gripping her upper right arm with both hands. § 87(2)(b) states that Police Officer Faber is pinching her and asks if another officer can hold her. § 87(2)(b) continues to scream "he's pinching me," and "he's hurting me." Police Officer Williams instructs § 87(2)(b) to, "Stop." As § 87(2)(b) continues to scream about Police Officer Faber pinching her, a clicking noise can be heard in the background. The camera shows Police Officer Faber still holding § 87(2)(b)'s right upper arm with one hand. Police Officer Williams tells § 87(2)(b) that Police Officer Faber is not pinching her but is just holding her arm, and he explains that his hand on her arm is in camera view. Police Officer Faber continues to hold § 87(2)(b)'s upper right arm and leads her off the elevator. The camera does not show Police Officer Faber's left hand.

201800966_20180606_1526_DM.mp4

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (H) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Robert Durst refused to provide his name to

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that as she was about to board the ambulance, she asked Sergeant Durst for his name and shield number, but he only provided his shield number.

BWC footage from Police Officer Gentile's camera (Board Review #2), embedded below, shows § 87(2)(b) requesting the officers' names in the hallway, asking, "Can I get some names?" Sergeant Durst says, "Durst, 3362." § 87(2)(b) repeats his shield number.

201800966_20180606_1524_DM.mp4

BWC footage from Police Officer Gentile's camera (Board Review #2), embedded below, shows § 87(2)(b) asking for Police Officer Faber's shield number as she is escorted to the ambulance. Police Officer Faber provides her with his shield number and the spelling and pronunciation of his last name. § 87(2)(b) does not ask Sergeant Durst again for his name or shield number.

201800966_20180606_1529_DM.mp4

Patrol Guide 203-09 states Members of Service must courteously and clearly state their name and shield number to anyone who requests it (Board Review #16).

§ 87(2)(g)

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- Police Officer Faber has been a member-of-service for three years and has been a subject in two CCRB complaints and three allegations, none of which were substantiated. § 87(2)(g)
- Sergeant Durst has been a member-of-service for nine years and has been a subject in two CCRB complaints and two allegations, which were not substantiated. § 87(2)(g)
- Police Officer Williams has been a member-of-service for four years and has been a subject in one CCRB complaint and two allegations, none of which were substantiated. § 87(2)(g)
- Police Officer Swift has been a member-of-service for four years and this is the first CCRB complaint to which he has been a subject.
- Police Officer DiSilvestre has been a member-of-service for two years and has been a subject in one CCRB complaint and one allegation, which was not substantiated. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) has been a party (Board Review #19).

Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories

- § 87(2)(b) declined to mediate this complaint.
- § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(c) (impair contract awards or CBAs)
- As of May 25, 2018, the New York City Office of the Comptroller has no record of a Notice of Claim being filed in regards to this complaint (Board Review #21).

Squad No.: 2

Investigator: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date

Squad Leader: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date

Reviewer: _____
Signature Print Title & Name Date