DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. Tyler Connor is a named defendant in the civil action Ryan Benn v. v. City of New York, et al., 154 673/2015, filed in New York Supreme Court, about an incident that occurred on September 19, 2014.
2. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) noted two counts of Other Misconduct on the part of Tyler Connor, misconduct: (1) Failure to Produce a Stop and Frisk Report; and (2) Failure to Prepare a Memo Book Entry. These findings arose out of an incident on August 12, 2016, at 112st Street and Second Avenue in which an identified civilian complainant approached Tyler Connor and several other police officers and told them that a man was harassing him by following and threatening him. He described and identified the man and explained that he and the man had prior disputes and that the man had previously tried to shoot a friend of his. He also indicated that he thought that the man might have a gun. Based on this information the police approached the man who had entered a deli took him outside and an officer frisked him. Officer Connor was one of the individuals who participated in the stop and frisk, but he prepared neither a memo book entry nor a stop, question, and frisk report despite being required to do so.
2. As of May 7, 2021, the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has pending against Tyler Connor allegations of: Abuse – Search of Premises; Abuse – Entry of Premises; Abuse – Property Damaged; Abuse – Refusal to Show Search Warrant; and Discourtesy – Word. These allegations were made on February 4, 2021, about an incident on February 3, 2021.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (NYPD) (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>). Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory. For some NYPD disciplinary matters in which a departmental trial was held for an officer, the decision in the trial is included in the NYPD database under the “Documents” tab for that officer.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
