In April 2012, staff at the Kings County District Attorney's Office viewed a cell phone video of the above-described November 1, 2011 incident. The video, although an incomplete depiction of the encounter, revealed that contrary to the sworn statements of P.O. Meade and P.O. [REDACTED], the father did back away when instructed to do so by P.O. Meade and that as he did so, P.O. [REDACTED] struck the father with a police baton and forced both the father and the son against a fence and handcuffed them. The video did not appear to depict the father swing his fists at P.O. [REDACTED].
