Case Summary

On June 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone.

On June 24, 2019, § 87(2)(b) scheduled an interview for June 26, 2019. On June 26, 2019, § 87(2)(b) did not appear for his scheduled interview. He did not contact the CCRB in advance to cancel or reschedule. That same day, a missed appointment letter and email were sent to the addresses § 87(2)(b) provided to the CCRB, neither of which was returned as undeliverable. On June 27, 2019, a call was placed to the phone number § 87(2)(b) provided to the CCRB, and a voicemail was left. On July 2, 2019, § 87(2)(b) was contacted at the phone number he provided to the CCRB. § 87(2)(b) confirmed his contact information, stated that he had forgotten about his interview, and scheduled a second interview for July 10, 2019. That same day, a text message confirmation was sent to § 87(2)(b) containing the interview date, time, and location. On July 10, 2019, § 87(2)(b) did not appear for his second scheduled interview. He did not contact the CCRB in advance to cancel or reschedule.

§ 87(2)(b) did not know the names or contact information of the other people involved in this incident. Based on § 87(2)(b)'s narrative, officers did not obtain pedigree information from any of the individuals involved. As such, police documentation would not provide contact information for these individuals. Given that § 87(2)(b) did not know the people he was with and that there was no police documentation for these individuals, the investigation was unable to identify the other people involved in this complaint.

On July 10, 2019, searches of the searches of the New York City and New York State inmate services showed that § 87(2)(b) was not incarcerated. Body-worn camera footage has been requested and will be added to the case file upon receipt.
