DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that, on or about 7/18/2018, George Xarhoulakos failed to notify a supervisor in a timely manner about a police matter.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about 9/23/2020, George Xarhoulakos failed to notify a supervisor in a timely manner about the police department matter.
3. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) noted the following misconduct: on or about May 23, 2013, George Xarhoulakos was involved in the stop of an individual who used a senior citizen/disability metro card. George Xarhoulakos did not have an entry in his memo book regarding the incident. According to NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 212-08, an officer is required to record in his or her memo book observed/suspected violations of the law, actions taken in relation, and activity relative to his or her assignment. George Xarhoulakos stopped the individual under the belief that he was committing theft of services – a crime classified as a Class A Misdemeanor. Therefore, he was required to document the incident in his memo book as stipulated by NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 212-08.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Two of these are online databases maintained by the New York City Police Department (<https://nypdonline.org/link/1026>) and the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page>). Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
