

1. On September 26, 2016 Officer Dominicci had a substantiated departmental investigation for leaving the scene of a traffic incident for which he received a letter of instruction.
2. On July 12, 2019 Officer Dominicci had a substantiated departmental investigation for an incomplete memo book and failure to prepare an aided report for which he received verbal instructions.

A review of the officer's CCRB history revealed the following:

1. On March 7, 2019, Officer Dominicci had a substantiated CCRB complaint against him for an improper entry and search of premises, an improper threat of arrest and failure to provide his business card. CCRB recommended that he receives a schedule "B" command discipline, however, NYPD did not substantiate these allegations and no disciplinary action was taken.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude reference to this information, or otherwise to object to its use or introduction into evidence during trial.

Should you wish to discuss this matter, please do not hesitate to call me at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Ext.] during office hours.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

cc: Clerk of the Court