Case Summary

On March 4, 2020, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via phone.

On March 4, 2020, at approximately 2:51 a.m., at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, § 87(2)(b) was stopped by three police officers—Lieutenant Henry Daverin from the 90th Precinct at the time of this incident, Police Officer Kyle Barnett, and Police Officer Patrick Foley—both from the Intel Criminal Section at the time of this incident, while attempting to get into his vehicle (Allegations A and B: Abuse of Authority-Stop, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority-Stop, § 87(2)(g) Lieutenant Daverin and PO Barnett allegedly pushed § 87(2)(b) into a fence. The officers held § 87(2)(b)'s upper body in place with one of their hands and held up fists using their free hands (Allegations D and E: Force-Physical Force, § 87(2)(g) PO Barnett allegedly told § 87(2)(b) to “stop fucking moving”, among multiple other discourteous and offensive statements, including “we’re going to take this nigga the fuck down” (Allegation F: Discourtesy-Word, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation G: Offensive Language-Race, § 87(2)(g) Lieutenant Daverin allegedly joined PO Barnett in making discourteous remarks, telling § 87(2)(b) that the vehicle was not his “fucking car” (Allegation H: Discourtesy-Word, § 87(2)(g)).

PO Foley approached § 87(2)(b) allegedly pushed his chest, and told him that he was under arrest (Allegation I: Force-Physical Force, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation J: Abuse of Authority-Threat of arrest, § 87(2)(g)). PO Foley later threatened § 87(2)(b) with arrest again, stating that they were going to “lock his fucking ass up” (Subsumed in Allegation J) (Allegation K: Discourtesy-Word, § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(b) requested all the officers’ names and shield numbers, which PO Barnett allegedly responded to by telling § 87(2)(b) to “shut the fuck up” (Subsumed in Allegation F). None of the officers provided their names or shield numbers to § 87(2)(b) (Allegations L and M: Abuse of Authority-Refusal to provide name, § 87(2)(g) (Allegations N and O: Abuse of Authority-Refusal to provide shield, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation P: Abuse of Authority-Refusal to provide name, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation Q: Abuse of Authority-Refusal to provide shield, § 87(2)(g)).

PO Foley walked around the vehicle to observe the VIN and license plate on § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle. PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin allegedly went through § 87(2)(b)'s pockets and grabbed his genitals in the process (Allegations R and S: Abuse of Authority-Frisk, § 87(2)(g) (Allegations T and U: Abuse of Authority-Search of person, § 87(2)(g) PO Barnett requested § 87(2)(b)'s “Fucking ID”, which § 87(2)(b) did not have on his person (Allegation V: Discourtesy-Word, § 87(2)(g) After § 87(2)(b) provided his identifying information verbally, the officers were able to run such information with that of his vehicle, which confirmed that he owned the vehicle. As the officers left the scene, § 87(2)(b) approached his vehicle, which was next to the officers’ vehicle. PO Barnett allegedly told § 87(2)(b) to “get the fuck back” (Subsumed in Allegation V). § 87(2)(b) addressed PO Barnett as a “faggot” and PO Barnett allegedly responded, “I’ll show you a faggot” (Allegation W: Offensive Language-Sexual Orientation, § 87(2)(g) and Allegation X: Discourtesy-Word, § 87(2)(g) PO Barnett joined the other officers, and they all left the scene.

Prior to the officers’ departure, none of them provided § 87(2)(b) with a business card (Allegations Y and Z: Abuse of Authority-Failure to provide RTKA card, § 87(2)(g) (Allegation AA: Abuse of Authority-Failure to provide RTKA card, § 87(2)(g) § 87(4-b), § 87(2)(g)

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Patrick Foley stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Henry Daverin stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Kyle Barnett stopped § 87(2)(b)

There is no video footage of this incident.

It was undisputed that Lieutenant Daverin, PO Foley, and PO Barnett stopped § 87(2)(b) regarding car burglaries in the 79th Precinct.

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that as he approached his vehicle, which was parked on the right side of § 87(2)(b) he noticed an unmarked vehicle pull up and double park on the left side of the same street—directly across from his vehicle. § 87(2)(b) opened the passenger side door to his vehicle, checked the gauge, and then closed the door. As he returned onto the sidewalk and turned around, he saw PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin exiting the unmarked vehicle and approaching him. The officers pushed him into the fence, giving him commands using profanities. PO Foley approached § 87(2)(b) pushed him, and informed him that he matched the description of someone committing burglaries in the neighborhood.

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b)'s girlfriend, informed the investigation that she was not present for the start of § 87(2)(b) and the NYPD's interaction (BR02).

PO Barnett testified (BR03) that as he, PO Foley and Lieutenant Daverin patrolled the confines of the 79th Precinct regarding a series of theft and grand larcenies, they double parked on § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). The officers witnessed § 87(2)(b) pulling on multiple door handles of a vehicle, starting with driver's side door, and moving to the backseat on the same side. § 87(2)(b) was walking around to the passenger side of the vehicle when the three officers exited their vehicles and approached him on the sidewalk. One of the officers, who PO Barnett could not specifically recall, told § 87(2)(b) that they were stopping him because his pulling on door handles appeared suspicious, given the recent increase in vehicle thefts in the area.

Lieutenant Daverin testified (BR04) that as he, PO Foley, and PO Barnett patrolled the area regarding the increase in grand larcenies, the officers witnessed § 87(2)(b) violently and aggressively pulling on the door handles of a parked vehicle—violently and aggressively depicted by repeated yanking. Lieutenant Daverin did not recall if the officers' vehicle was parked or driving when the observation was made. He did he recall how many, or which handles § 87(2)(b) was pulling on. Lieutenant Daverin approached § 87(2)(b) but did not remember if any other officer joined him. One of the officers, who Lieutenant Daverin did not specifically remember, informed § 87(2)(b) that they stopped him because of the way he was pulling on the handles.

Before a person may be stopped in a public place a police officer must have reasonable suspicion that such person is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a crime. To justify a stop based on reasonable suspicion, the police officer(s) must indicate specific and articulable facts which, along with any logical deductions, reasonably prompted that stop. People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (BR16).

According to the Department Advocate's Office, PO Patrick Foley resigned from the NYPD on December 11, 2021 (BR18).

§ 87(2)(g)

Both PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin articulated that § 87(2)(b)'s pulling on a vehicle's door handles during their surveillance for grand larcenies in the precinct prompted them to stop § 87(2)(b) and thus providing reasonable suspicion as per People v. De Bour. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation (D) Force: Detective Kyle Barnett used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (E) Force: Lieutenant Henry Daverin used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin approached him and aggressively pushed him into the fence in front of his dwelling, with Lieutenant Daverin on his left side and PO Barnett on his right side. § 87(2)(b)'s back hit the fence. Each officer had one hand on § 87(2)(b)'s upper body, with the other in a fist.

§ 87(2)(b) (BR02) testified that, since her initial approach of the incident, she did not see any officer make physical contact with § 87(2)(b). However, she stated that § 87(2)(b) informed her, after the fact, that there was a physical altercation prior to her approach.

PO Barnett (BR03) and Lieutenant Daverin (BR04) both testified that they did not recall using physical force against § 87(2)(b) or witnessing any other officer do so.

§ 87(2)(b)

Allegation (G) Offensive Language: Police Officer Kyle Barnett made remarks to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) based upon race.

Allegation (H) Discourtesy: Lieutenant Henry Daverin spoke discourteously to #####

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that, in addition to pushing him upon the officers' initial approach, PO Barnett also made multiple discourteous and offensive statements. As Lieutenant Daverin and PO Barnett held § 87(2)(b) against the fence, PO Barnett told § 87(2)(b) to not to ask "fucking" questions and to stop "fucking" moving. PO Barnett told Lieutenant Daverin that they were "taking this asshole down". When discussing his vehicle, PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin told § 87(2)(b) that the vehicle was not his "fucking car". PO Barnett also made the following statements during the incident: "shut the fuck up", and "what's your fucking name", "we're going to take this nigga the fuck down", and "we ain't profiling shit".

§ 87(2)(b) (BR02) did not note any officer using profanity during her involvement in the incident.

PO Barnett (BR03) denied using profanity throughout the incident, including the specific statements § 87(2)(b) alleged, which were presented to him during his interview. PO Barnett testified that he did not make any offensive remarks toward § 87(2)(b) regarding his race, including "were going to take this nigga the fuck down".

Lieutenant Daverin (BR04) did not remember witnessing any officer using profanity during the incident neither did he recall using profanity himself. Lieutenant Daverin testified that he did not make or witness any statements made regarding § 87(2)(b)'s race. When presented with § 87(2)(b)'s specific alleged statements regarding profanity and his race, Lieutenant Daverin's recollection of witnessing or making such statements did not change.

§ 87(2)(b)

Allegation (K) Discourtesy: Police Officer Patrick Foley spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that PO Foley approached him as PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin held him against the fence in front of his home. PO Foley pushed his chest with his two hands and informed him that he was under arrest. PO Foley mentioned § 87(2)(b) matching the description of a car burglar in the neighborhood, which § 87(2)(b) disputed. Shortly after a discussion about § 87(2)(b) not having his ID, PO Foley stated that they were going to “lock § 87(2)(b) [s] fucking ass up”. PO Foley’s reason for the threat of arrest was § 87(2)(b)’s lack of ID, converse to the initial reason of his matching a description.

According to the Department Advocate’s Office, Patrick Foley resigned from the NYPD on December 11, 2021 (BR18).

Allegation (P) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Patrick Foley refused to provide his name to

§ 87(2)(b)

Allegation (Q) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Patrick Foley refused to provide his shield number to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that he asked PO Foley, PO Barnett, and Lieutenant Daverin for their names, to which PO Barnett responded, “shut the fuck up.” § 87(2)(b) proceeded to ask for their shield numbers, and PO Barnett told him that he would find out in a minute. None of the officers provided their name or shield numbers to § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR02) that § 87(2)(b) asked for the officers’ shield numbers so that he could file a complaint. The officers proceeded as if the request was not made and, thus, did not provide any of their information. Instead, they proceeded to ask about the complaint § 87(2)(b) wanted to file.

PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin both testified that they were unsure if § 87(2)(b) requested their identifying information, including name and shield. Neither officer specifically remembered providing their information to § 87(2)(b).

According to the Department Advocate’s Officer, Patrick Foley resigned from the NYPD on December 11, 2021 (BR18).

Allegation (R) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Kyle Barnett frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (S) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Henry Daverin frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (T) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Kyle Barnett searched § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (U) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Henry Daverin searched § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin held § 87(2)(b) with one hand and searched all of his pockets with the other. They went inside of his front and back pants pockets and his jacket pockets. § 87(2)(b) had money, headphones, and his phone in his pockets. The officers did not take anything out of the pockets. As the officers searched him, § 87(2)(b) stated that each officer aggressively grabbed his genitals—Lieutenant Daverin from the left and PO Barnett from the right side.

§ 87(2)(b) did not testify to seeing any physical contact between § 87(2)(b) and the officers, including a search or a frisk.

PO Barnett stated (BR03) that he did not search § 87(2)(b) and did not recall if any other officer did so. PO Barnett did not believe there was any reason to believe § 87(2)(b) had a weapon and, thus, there was no need to frisk him during this incident.

Lieutenant Daverin testified (BR04) that he was not sure if there was a need to search § 87(2)(b) or go inside of his pockets. Lieutenant Daverin did not remember himself or any other officer patting § 87(2)(b) body down or going into any of his pockets. Lieutenant Daverin did not recall himself or any other officer making contact with § 87(2)(b)'s genitals.

Allegation (V) Discourtesy: Police Officer Kyle Barnett spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

Allegation (W) Offensive Language: Police Officer Kyle Barnett made remarks to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) based upon the perceived sexual orientation of § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (X) Discourtesy: Police Officer Kyle Barnett spoke discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR01) that, after PO Barnett and Lieutenant Daverin searched and frisked him, PO Barnett informed him that they need his “Fucking ID”. After § 87(2)(b) provided his identifying information and the officers were able to confirm that he owned the vehicle, the officers began leaving the scene. As § 87(2)(b) approached his vehicle, PO Barnett told him to “get the fuck back”. § 87(2)(b) responded, “who the fuck are you talking to, faggot?” PO Barnett responded something similar to “I’ll show you a faggot”. The final word was from § 87(2)(b), who told PO Barnett, “I fucking dare you”.

§ 87(2)(b) testified (BR02) that, as the officers walked away, PO Barnett told § 87(2)(b), “Don’t go walking up behind me.” § 87(2)(b) responded, “I’m going to my car. Nobody is worried about your faggot asses”. § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) not to speak to the officers, which ended the interaction. § 87(2)(b) did not testify that PO Barnett used the word “faggot.”

PO Barnett (BR03) did not make any statements using the word “faggot” when addressing § 87(2)(b) nor did he hear any other officer do so. PO Barnett did use profanity or the word “fuck” in any variation during this incident.

Lieutenant Daverin (BR04) did not witness any officer make any comments regarding § 87(2)(b)'s sexual orientation, including the use of the word “faggot”. He did not witness any officer using profanity during the incident.

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), and PO Barnett acknowledged that § 87(2)(b) addressed the officers as “faggot[s]”. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (Y) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Kyle Barnett failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (Z) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Henry Daverin failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Allegation (AA) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Patrick Foley failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

It is undisputed that the officers stopped § 87(2)(b) regarding the increase of grand larcenies in the 79th Precinct.

§ 87(2)(b) (BR01) testified that he did not receive a business card from PO Barnett, PO Foley, or Lieutenant Daverin at any point during this incident.

PO Barnett (BR03) did not offer § 87(2)(b) a business card, nor did he know if any other officer did so. When § 87(2)(b) went straight into his dwelling after he was free to go and did not request a business card. PO Barnett did not know if this incident required § 87(2)(b) to receive a business card.

Lieutenant Daverin (BR04) was not sure if any officer provided § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

According to the Department Advocate’s Office, Patrick Foley resigned from the NYPD on December 11, 2021 (BR18).

Officers are required to offer pre-printed right to know business card upon the conclusion of law enforcement activities—including founded and reasonable suspicion of a crime committed, except in cases when a summons is issued or an arrest is made, or exigent circumstances are present. Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 (BR05).

NYPD officers are required to offer a business card to individuals at the conclusion of any law enforcement activity, including pedestrian stops based on reasonable suspicion, that does not result in an arrest or summons. New York City Administrative Code § 14-174 (BR17).
