DISCLOSURE ADVISORY

For the person named above, whom the People may call as a witness, please be advised as follows.

1. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about February 22, 2013, Kiesha Lawhorne violated Patrol Guide Procedure 207-21 in that she failed to notify the Internal Affairs Bureau immediately after she became aware of an allegation of corruption or other misconduct involving a member of service.
2. The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on or about September 3, 2013, Kiesha Lawhorne violated Patrol Guide Procedure 207-21 in that she failed to notify the Internal Affairs Bureau immediately after she became aware of an allegation of corruption or other misconduct involving a member of service.
3. The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has deemed substantiated an allegation that on July 4, 2017, Officer Lawhorne violated Patrol Guide Procedure 214-23, in that after issuing an unreasonable noise summons to the driver of a vehicle, she seized a speaker from the back seat of the vehicle. Patrol Guide Procedure 214-23 instructs officers to seize sound reproduction devices when issuing unreasonable noise summonses except when the sound reproduction devices are in vehicles.

Various publicly available websites and databases contain disciplinary information for certain law enforcement officers. Information in such databases about this officer is not necessarily included in this advisory.

Any information herein regarding civil lawsuits against an officer is not necessarily a complete list of civil lawsuits in which that officer is a defendant.

Allegations of misconduct that have not been substantiated and are not pending (including, but not limited to, findings of unsubstantiated, unfounded, and exonerated), and allegations of technical infractions, are not subject to disclosure and are not included in this advisory.

The decision to include information in this advisory does not represent a conclusion by the People that it is required to be disclosed.

The People reserve the right to oppose or move to limit the use of any information included herein or disclosed in the future.

If you have any questions, please contact the Assistant District Attorney assigned to the case on which you are receiving this advisory.
