Case Summary

§ 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB on April 11, 2017, via telephone.

During § 87(2)(b)'s intake phone call, he scheduled an appointment for April 17, 2017. On the date of his appointment, § 87(2)(b) called the CCRB's main line and canceled his appointment. On April 21, 2017, § 87(2)(b) was contacted and he indicated that he did not wish to continue with his complaint because he spoke with the mother of the teen on whose behalf he filed this complaint and she did not wish to be involved. § 87(2)(b) decided to withdraw his complaint, and he stated that he was not coerced to do so by anyone at the CCRB or the NYPD. The digitally recorded conversation can be found in IA#15 and the withdrawal questions begin at the 03:30 mark. There is a pause in the withdrawal questions because § 87(2)(b) provided additional context about the incident, but they begin again at the 07:05 mark. IM Dane Buchanan reviewed the recording to ensure it adhered to agency standards. A complaint withdrawal letter was mailed to § 87(2)(b) on April 21, 2017, and the signed letter was returned to the CCRB on May 17, 2017. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) did not have any contact information for the teen or his mother. A search of CTS did not yield any duplicate complaints related to this incident. A Stop, Question, and Frisk index did not yield any stops near the incident location, and a search of BADS did not yield any arrests related to this incident. A search of the Event Summary showed an incident that occurred at around the same time and in the vicinity of this incident; however, it appears that the nearby Event is unrelated to this incident, and it did not provide any information that could help identify the alleged victim of § 87(2)(b)'s allegation. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b).
