Disclosure Advisory

Detective Investigator Dustin Genco

Agency: Nassau County District Attorney's office assigned to the U.S Drug Enforcement Administration
Long Island Division Office formerly of the New York City Police Department (retired).

Dear Counsel:

This letter concerns the above-named officer, whom the People intend to call as a witness in this case. This letter and the referenced documents and information are based on the People's actual or imputed knowledge or was obtained voluntarily by the People for purposes of disclosure. People make no representations as to whether additional information or documents may exist outside of the People's actual or imputed knowledge. We are aware of our continuing duty to disclose information under our constitutional, ethical or statutory obligations.

These disclosures do not include allegations that were unfounded, exonerated, or otherwise are not subject to disclosure. The decision to include information in this letter and its attachments does not represent a conclusion by the People that all the information is required to be disclosed under the People's constitutional, ethical or statutory obligations.

The People reserve the right to move in limine to preclude or limit reference to this information in any further proceedings in this prosecution.

Detective Investigator Dustin Genco was formerly a member of the New York City Police Department ("the Department"). In addition to the information below, police disciplinary information exists online, including in public databases located at: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/ccrb/policy/MOS-records.page> and <https://nypdonline.org/link/13>. A public list of lawsuits alleging misconduct by the NYPD and its officers is available at: <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/law/public-resources/nyc-administrative-code-7-114.page>. Information concerning Detective Investigator Dustin Genco may or may not be included in these databases, and the People are unable to verify the databases' general accuracy.

☐ The People are unaware of information that would be subject to disclosure under their constitutional, ethical or statutory obligations.

I am electronically serving the following:

- ☐ Documents concerning testimony and the judicial decision that followed.
- ☒ Redacted Civilian Complaint Review Board documents.
- ☒ Appendix A, attached hereto, reflecting allegations of misconduct investigated by the Department.

☒ Disciplinary Information

☒ The below list of civil lawsuits in which this officer has been named in his/her capacity as a member of law enforcement.

☒ Publicly-available litigation documents related to these lawsuits, to the extent the documents currently are in the People's possession.
