Details
On Saturday December 24, 2022 at approximately 1649, I Detective Colon Returned a call to complainant [REDACTED] D.O.B [REDACTED] on the recorded line. Details are as follows;

Complainant stated in sum and in substance that she went to the store located at 257 Gold street, "The Gold street Market" in the confines of the 84th precinct and made a transaction which was declined on the machine but noticed that the money was debited from her bank account. Complainant stated that the merchant called the police on her, and she told police that her transaction was declined and would like to see the proof. Police described as a black tall, big male and a short female white with a brown ponytail responded to the scene and spoke to the merchant. Complainant stated that she approached the police and merchant, and the male police officer did not allow her to see the "proof". Complainant is not happy on how the responding police handled the job. Complainant stated she has contacted the FBI, and ABC news.
