Case Summary

On November 19, 2016, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint with IAB, generating original log number 16-40917. On November 25, 2016, the CCRB received the following complaint from IAB via log number 2016-41271.

Between November 30, 2016, and December 14, 2016, five phone calls were made and voicemail messages left for § 87(2)(b) and four letters were sent to the address that he provided to IAB. On December 14, 2016, Investigative Manager Peter Hoy conducted LexisNexis and CLEAR searches to obtain an email address and additional contact modes for § 87(2)(b). No email addresses was recovered, however, an additional residential address was found and two letters were sent to the address. On December 14, 2016, Detective Reed from IAB conducted a search for additional contact information for § 87(2)(b) within the original IAB log, which yielded negative results. Searches of the DMV database and the COLES directory were conducted in order to locate any additional contact information § 87(2)(b) however, they also produced negative results.

In § 87(2)(b) previous complaint, CCRB case number § 87(2)(b) he provided an email address and a different phone number. A call was made and found the number to be disconnected, and two emails were sent. In this case, § 87(2)(b) alleged that his friend was stopped along with him. However, without § 87(2)(b) cooperation, the investigation was not able to identify his friend or contact them.

On December 12, 2016, a search of the Department of Correction website was conducted, concluding that § 87(2)(b) is not incarcerated. As of the date of this report, § 87(2)(b) has not contacted the CCRB in regards to his complaint, and none of the letters sent have been returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. § 87(2)(g)
