ADDITIONAL REMARKS/COMMENTS (If Necessary)

C.C.R.B. No. 2716

This complaint was filed by complainant, § 87(2)(b) of § 87(2)(b) New York who stated on 6/20/84 at approximately 2340 hours he was stopped at a red light to let an emergency vehicle pass. He alleged that he had driven about 3 blocks and an auto car motioned for him to pull over. The officer refused to tell complainant the reason he pulled him over and issued him the summons. The officer also allegedly threw the papers into the window of the car.

(Encl. 1)

On 6/21/84 certified mail was sent to complainant and a receipt signed by the complainant was returned to investigator on 7/6/84.

(Encl. 2)

On 7/3/84 the complainant telephoned this office and left a message that he was going to be on vacation until 7/23/84 and would contact the undersigned at that time. A check was made with telephone information to see if complainant has a telephone which met with negative results.

As of this date the complainant has not contacted this office regarding this investigation. § 87(2)(g) § 87(2)(g)
