A man was on the stoop of his home in the Bronx with a friend. Three narcotics detectives, driving by, believed that they saw a hand-to-hand transaction (one man had in fact paid the other back five dollars that had been borrowed). The narcotics officers approached the men and asked to see their IDs. The man who lived in the house declined, saying he was on his own property. He then asked the officers for their names and shield numbers.

At least one officer provided his name and shield number, and the man went into his house to get a pen and write the number down. When he returned with the pen, the officers tackled him and arrested him for making excessive noise. The officers stated that a crowd had gathered because the man had been shouting, and that he had been threatening them with the pen.

A neighbor had recorded the entire scene on video, and while the recording did show that one officer had provided his badge number, it demonstrated that no crowd had gathered and that the man was holding the pen by his waist when the officers tackled him. No narcotics were recovered.

The CCRB found that while the officers were justified in making the initial stop and inquiry, they had arrested the man without probable cause and lied in their CCRB interviews.

The NYPD provided each officer with formalized training.

- He sustained physical injuries and was transported to [REDACTED] Hospital during the incident.

CCRB statement:

[REDACTED] was interviewed at the CCRB on April 20, 2016.

[REDACTED] filed this complaint so late because he was indecisive and hoped that the "system" would do something about the situation. However, he now realizes that only he could do something about it.

On June 2, 2015, at approximately 3:45 p.m., [REDACTED] stood behind a gated area as he spoke with his friend, [REDACTED] in front of his residence located on [REDACTED] in the Bronx. [REDACTED] gave [REDACTED] five dollars that he had previously lent him. Nothing else was exchanged between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] stood inside the gated area and [REDACTED] stood directly in front to the gate. He spoke with [REDACTED] through the "gaps" in the gate and at no point did he open the door. The gate is located directly in front of his residence and there is a door which is normally locked and without a key a person would have to be buzzed in. However, the buzzer was broken on the date of incident. Therefore, the gate was unlocked. [REDACTED] denied doing anything else besides speaking to [REDACTED]. He denied engaging in any illegal activities. Neither [REDACTED] nor [REDACTED] was smoking. [REDACTED] denied yelling, shouting, or playing loud music during the incident. It was quiet during the time of incident, at approximately 2:30 p.m.

[REDACTED] friend, [REDACTED] (he did not provide his last name), stood in front of the building directly across the street from [REDACTED] during the incident.

Approximately 10 minutes of being outside, a grey or black unmarked van stopped in front of his residence. The vehicle did not have any lights or sirens engaged. [REDACTED] did not recall the make or model of the vehicle, but stated that it was possibly a Ford or Chevrolet. He did not record the license plate number of the vehicle.

Initially, [REDACTED] stated that PO1 exited the van first and then PO2 and PO3 followed after, but he clarified that PO1, PO2, and PO3, all exited the van together. PO1 walked towards [REDACTED] while PO2 and PO3 stood nearby. PO1 asked [REDACTED] who he was, what he was doing here, and asked to see his ID. [REDACTED] did not answer PO1 and asked, "What?" PO1 called [REDACTED] "homeboy" and made stereotypical statements. When asked what he meant by stereotypical statements, [REDACTED] stated that PO1 seemed like he has arrested people like him before and was looking to arrest another "homie."

[REDACTED] described PO1 as a white male, in plainclothes (wore shorts, black shirt, and did not wear a hat), 5'10" – 6' tall, husky build, weighs approximately 220 pounds, with possibly grey, blonde, or black hair, "Caesar"-haircut, and had light facial hair. PO1 possibly had tattoo on his arm, but did not recall. He did not wear glasses.

PO2 was described as a male, dark-skinned, in plainclothes (he wore a hat, black shirt, and green pants), 5'4"-5'5" tall, stocky/athletic, and looked older than 30 years old.

PO3 was described as a white male, in plainclothes (wore a hat, t-shirt, and pants), 5'7" tall, average build, with light facial hair, and blonde hair.

Subsequently, PO1 opened the gate, approached [REDACTED] and then placed his hand inside [REDACTED] left sweater pocket. PO1 did not remove anything from that pocket. [REDACTED] stated that the pocket was empty. He had his keys in another pocket. PO1 did not go into any other pockets. [REDACTED] stated that the officers went inside his other pockets after he was "tackled." [REDACTED] stated that he did not hold anything in his hands. He then stated that he possibly held a metro card in his hand. After PO1 placed his hand inside his pocket, PO1 lured him out by saying, "Come here," and asking for his ID. [REDACTED] told the officer that he lived there.

[REDACTED] stated that PO1 did not identify himself initially and only stated, "Shut up, I'm the law," when he asked who he was. PO1 then displayed his badge which was attached to a chain around his neck. [REDACTED] stated that he was paranoid and his anxiety increased during the incident. He did not know if they were actual NYPD officers because they were in "street clothes" and did not identify themselves. [REDACTED] stated that he found out their names at the precinct. When pressed on how he obtained that information, he stated that he did not obtain their names and that the information was possibly just on the report. [REDACTED] stated that he did not know the officers' names.

[REDACTED] stated that since PO1 did not respect him, he addressed PO1 in the same manner, but denied getting nasty. [REDACTED] stated PO1 did not cooperate with him and he felt that he did not do anything wrong. [REDACTED] stated that he was protecting himself and tried to cooperate to the best of his ability.

Once [REDACTED] was outside the gate, the officers stood in a triangle-formation around him. The officers again asked [REDACTED] for his ID. In response, he stated that he lived there and for them to provide their badge numbers, names, and their precinct because he wanted to file a complaint. [REDACTED] initially only asked PO1, but he later asked PO2 and PO3 as well. None of the officers provided any of the aforementioned information. When [REDACTED] stood outside the gate, [REDACTED] stood inches away from him. [REDACTED] did not have any conversation with the officers which caused [REDACTED] to believe that the officers had a personal vendetta against him.

At some point, all of the officers cursed at [REDACTED]. He did not recall the specific curse words they used, but he recalled them saying "shut up," possibly the "F" word, and "homie."

He admitted that he was "hot-headed" during the incident and exchanged words with the officers. He noted that PO2 was the main officer that antagonized the situation. [REDACTED] stated that he spoke at a high voice because the officers spoke at a high voice. [REDACTED] stated that he possibly used profanities, but did not recall if he actually did so. [REDACTED] stated that he and the officers were aggravated during the incident.

[REDACTED] stated that he began to panic during the incident which affected his breathing and caused him to constantly look around. He was also getting upset and nervous and began fidgeting. [REDACTED] was moving his body and moved his hands up and down constantly which he described as actions similar to a music composer. [REDACTED] stated that he kept his distance from the officers. However, he later stated that he walked closer to the officers because he felt as if he was being harassed. Additionally, he said that he went close to the officers because the officers came close to him and there were points during the incident where he walked up to the officers to make a point.

[REDACTED] and PO2 were engaged in a "heated" conversation and [REDACTED] was moving his arms "all over the place" while holding onto an envelope. [REDACTED] denied striking the officers or making any physical contact with them. At some point thereafter, PO2 struck [REDACTED]. PO2 swung his arm towards [REDACTED] face. He did not recall whether PO2 used a closed fist at this point. In response, [REDACTED] placed his right forearm across his forehead to block the hit. PO2 subsequently made contact with his arm and grabbed it. PO1 and PO3 assisted by grabbing [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was then pushed against the gate causing his head to bang against it. He felt punches towards his stomach and rib area and felt strikes against his head as he was being pushed down to the ground. He did not see which officer punched him. [REDACTED] crossed both of his arms across his chest and grabbed his own shoulders trying to block himself from getting hit and to protect his face. [REDACTED] denied doing anything else. [REDACTED] initially stated that he was kicked in the neck, but he later stated that he was kneed in the neck, his back, and head. [REDACTED] later clarified by visually showing the investigator that an officer had one knee to the back of his neck while his other foot was on top of the back of his head. He affirmed that he was able to breathe "a little" when the officer made contact with his neck. As the officers pinned him to the ground he was slightly dragged. [REDACTED] stated that the pressure the officers were applying to him caused him to move on the ground. The aforementioned occurrence caused him to sustain contusions to his knees and elbows. [REDACTED] denied making any movements during this incident and stated that he let the officers place him in handcuffs. [REDACTED] was handcuffed while on the ground and was subsequently lifted up and escorted to the police vehicle.

[REDACTED] initially stated that the officers threw him in the car, but when pressed to describe the action he clarified that the officers pushed him to get inside.

At some point after he was struck by PO2, he was told that he was going to be under arrest. [REDACTED] did not recall if he ever provided his ID prior to being placed in handcuffs. However, PO3 used a device and found his name.

[REDACTED] did not recall if he was transported to the stationhouse or to the hospital first. He told the officers that he was in pain and the handcuffs were too tight. The officers told him, "That's what you get."

[REDACTED] stated that the officers were "racial." [REDACTED] stated that they were sarcastic and verbally abusing him. He could not recall what was specifically said, but they implied that he was where he belongs because of his actions. The officers stated, "It's your choice that you're here," and, "Typical." He then went on to say that the officers were stereotyping him. When the investigator asked if it was in regards to his race, he responded, "Sure." He stated that the 44th Precinct and the Bronx is predominately Latin and African. He believed the officers abused their power.

[REDACTED] presented a document from the Bronx District Attorney's Office and stated that they alleged he said, "You can't fucking do anything to me this is bullshit I just came out of my house fuck you [sic]." [REDACTED] denied making these statements during the incident. [REDACTED] then presented the criminal court complaint. Copies of both documents were obtained after the interview.

During the interview, [REDACTED] requested that he be excused so that he could move his car. He was informed that the investigator could not wait indefinitely for him to return. [REDACTED] understood and stated that he would return in approximately 15 minutes. The recording was paused at 4:34 p.m. [REDACTED] provided the undersigned with a copy of the video recording and photos of his injury via a USB drive before he left. At 4:59 p.m., [REDACTED] returned and the recording resumed. Please note that the investigator mistakenly stated that the interview was concluded on the recording.

The recording was paused at 5:20 p.m. for the setup of the video [REDACTED] provided. The recording resumed at 5:21 p.m. with [REDACTED] present. This video containing audio was recorded by "Jeff" from across the street of the incident location.

The video was played from the beginning and paused at the 10 second mark as [REDACTED] was stating that the heavyset individual on the left of the screen was [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] then affirmed that he was the individual wearing the white sweater on the screen. The individual directly on the right of [REDACTED] was PO1, the officer that entered through his gate. He stated that they were all standing in front of his home during the video. [REDACTED] stated the video was recorded after he was already "lured out," but Jeff and [REDACTED] witnessed the incident prior to what was captured on the video. [REDACTED] stated that PO2 was the other officer on the screen. Additionally, he affirmed that the van on the screen was the officers' van. He stated that in the video everyone was standing close to one another. [REDACTED] pointed to the left of the screen and stated that was the gate he was referring to during the interview. The video resumed playing at the 10 second mark. As the video was playing, [REDACTED] stated that he asked, "Who's your lieutenant?" The video was paused at the 18 second mark and the investigator asked [REDACTED] to clarify what he was referring to when he stated "2506" in the recording. He did not know what that number meant. The video was resumed at the 18 second mark and paused at the 24 second mark when [REDACTED] stated, "Homeboy" during the interview. [REDACTED] stated that the officer called him a "homeboy" in the video and in response he told the officer that he was not a "homeboy." The video resumed playing. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] affirmed he was speaking during the video. As the video was playing, [REDACTED] pointed out that PO2 called him a "clown." He stated that PO2 antagonized the situation. The video was then paused at the 1 minute and 44 second mark as [REDACTED] was pointing at the screen. He stated that [REDACTED] was trying to calm him down at this point because he was getting agitated. He admitted that he and the officers were starting to get "heated." [REDACTED] also stated that the individual wearing the blue shirt and cap on the screen was PO3. He stated that PO3 was already out, but was possibly sitting down. The video resumed playing and [REDACTED] stated that PO3 had something in his hand and stated that at this point in the recording he asked, "How you know my name?" The video was paused at the 2 minute and 17 second mark.

[REDACTED] explained that PO2 struck him and the officers were trying to restrain him. He denied striking any one. All three officers had their hands on him and pushed him against the gate and pushed him down. The video was played from the 2 minute and 8 second mark and paused at the 2 minute and 10 second mark. The investigator asked [REDACTED] whether the video aided in his recollection and if he wanted to amend his initial statement. [REDACTED] stated that it did jog some memories, but it was mostly things he already explained. He stated that he believed he maintained his composure. He then noted that the stereotypes were apparent in the way PO2 spoke to him as a "street thug" rather than a civil human being. The video resumed playing at the 2 minute and 10 second mark. The video was then paused at the 2 minute and 34 second mark was when the officers were dragging him. Additionally, [REDACTED] confirmed that PO3 was the officer who placed his knee against [REDACTED] back. The video resumed playing and was paused at the 2 minute and 48 second. The video resumed playing and was paused at the 3 minute and 3 second mark. [REDACTED] stated that the license plate, GEK-1974, was captured in the video at the 2 minute and 55 second mark. At the 3 minute and 20 second mark, [REDACTED] stated that there was another witness shown on the screen that he did not see previously. He identified her to be his landlord, nicknamed "Peewee." She lived at the location. [REDACTED] affirmed that the gate on the screen was the gate he was referring to throughout the interview. The video resumed playing at the 3 minute and 18 second mark and the video was viewed without any interruptions.

[REDACTED] stated that his brother, [REDACTED] and mother witnessed the incident from the window on the third floor. [REDACTED] wanted to note that she had since passed away and the incident caused emotional stress for her. He stated that his mother went to the stationhouse to find out what occurred during the incident.

[REDACTED] was shown the photos that he provided to the investigator. Some of the files were labeled June 3, 2015, June 4, 2015, or September 2015. [REDACTED] stated that all of the photos were taken the day he was released on June 3. His attorney took the photos labeled June 4 and his mother took the photos labeled June 3. When asked whether the photos labeled June 4, 2015 were also taken on June 3, 2015, [REDACTED] seemed unclear.

As the car was nearing [redacted], Det. Alvarez saw [redacted] handing a small object to [redacted] and [redacted] moving his hand towards [redacted] which he believed to appear to be a narcotics transaction. At this point, Det. Alvarez stated that it appeared to be a narcotics transaction. Det. Alvarez did not have any discussion with Det. Russell or Det. Hawreluk in regards to his observation. He stated that he announced, "He's selling to him," at which point the vehicle stopped before driving past the location. Det. Alvarez stated that Det. Russell and Det. Hawreluk also observed this after he made the announcement, if they were not already looking. However, Det. Alvarez did not know if Det. Russell or Det. Hawreluk confirmed that they observed what he saw. Det. Alvarez affirmed that he did not see anything else exchanged.

Det. Alvarez stated that there are a few steps leading to the entrance in front of [redacted]. Subsequent to the steps there is a door which led to a foyer where there were mailboxes and then another door. He initially stated that there was no gated area in front of the residence, but he later amended this and stated that there was a gated area with a door which was wide opened after viewing the video footage. He also stated that [redacted] and [redacted] were both on the steps inside the gated area when he first observed them. Det. Alvarez stated that he was able to see through the gate from the side and that the door was opened which also allowed him to see inside.

Det. Alvarez stated that he believed the small object to be a small glassine of heroine which he described as a small square envelope. During the interview, Det. Alvarez gestured that the object was apparently 1 to 2 inches in size. Moreover, he stated that the object was white. Det. Alvarez did not see [redacted] receive the object. He only saw [redacted] reaching over with the object and [redacted] reaching his hand out. Det. Alvarez stated that the vehicle stopped once he made the observation and he did not see where the object was after they stopped the vehicle.

Det. Alvarez, Det. Russell, and Det. Hawreluk exited the vehicle based on Det. Alvarez's observation. At the time, Det. Alvarez intent was to make an inquiry in regards to what they were doing. He did not have intent to issue a summons or make an arrest at this point. When Det. Alvarez was asked whether [redacted] was free to leave, Representative Joe Montori stated that they were making an inquiry and that they were not free to leave. When asked again if they were not free to leave, Det. Alvarez stated that [redacted] stuck both of his hands in his pocket which raised his suspicion. Det. Alvarez and Det. Hawreluk walked up the steps towards [redacted]. At this point, [redacted] immediately stuck both of his hands inside his two front pant pockets and moved back towards the door frame. After seeing this, Det. Alvarez stated that his suspicion raised and he did not know if he Alvarez's orders to remove his hands from his pockets. Det. Alvarez asked [REDACTED] to do so at least four or five times. [REDACTED] was combative and cursing at the officers. Det. Alvarez stated that he and the other officers continued to ask [REDACTED] to take his hands out of his pockets. Det. Alvarez did raise his voice since [REDACTED] was yelling and Det. Alvarez wanted to ensure that he heard his commands. [REDACTED] stated, "Fuck you I'm not taking my hands out," and, "You are fucking harassing me. I'm not taking my hands out. I don't have to listen to you." Subsequently, Det. Hawreluk grabbed [REDACTED] by both of his forearms and pulled his hands out of his pockets.
