Case Summary

On March 28, 2020, $87(2)(b) filed this complaint on the CCRB website on behalf of himself and his brother, $87(2)(b)
On March 19, 2020, at approximately 9:50 p.m., numerous officers from the 52 nd Precinct, including PO Bryan Scheblein, PO Christina Moncion, and PO Gina Mestre, stopped $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ s vehicle in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx. During the stop, PO Moncion frisked $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and searched him (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and searched $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and searched $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and searched the vehicle in which $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ PO Moncion searched the vehicle in which $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ PO Moncion searched the vehicle in which $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and were occupants (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority, $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and were occupants (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority, $\frac{87(2)(6)}{2}$ and was arrested and taken to the 52 nd Precinct stationhouse, where officers searched his vehicle (Allegation O: Abuse of Authority , $57(2)(9) Officers subsequently released $57(2)(6) from custody with two summonses for disorderly conduct and a vehicle stopping or standing violation (Board Review 01 and 02) as a result of this incident.

On March 21, 2020, at approximately 4:00 p.m., $87(2)(6) went to the 52 nd Precinct stationhouse, where he interacted with numerous officers. PO Scheblein threatened to arrest $87(2)(6) (Allegation P: Abuse of Authority, $87(2)(8)
Body-Worn Camera (BWC) footage recorded by officers in this case was received from the NYPD's Legal Bureau (Board Review 03) and transcribed (Board Review 04 through 13). Cell phone footage recorded was provided to the CCRB by (Board Review 14 and 15; summarized in Board Review 16 and 17).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Christina Moncion frisked $87(2)(6) Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Christina Moncion searched $87(2)(6) It is undisputed that at approximately 9:50 p.m. on March 19, 2020, officers stopped $87(2)(b) s vehicle in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx. was a passenger in $87(2)(b) s vehicle. During the vehicle stop, PO Moncion frisked and searched § 87(2)(b) and subsequently searched his vehicle. PO Mestre also conducted a vehicle search and frisked § 87(2)(b) stated to the CCRB (Board Review 18) that after noticing an unmarked vehicle with flashing lights behind him, he stopped his vehicle. Prior to the stop, his vehicle did not smell of marijuana. § 87(2)(b) did not smoke marijuana in the vehicle, and he did not think that smoked marijuana whatsoever. § 87(2)(6) did not state whether he had committed any vehicle infractions prior to the vehicle stop. PO Moncion approached the vehicle, and instructed him to exit the vehicle. He initially protested, but ultimately exited the vehicle. PO Moncion reached into $87(2)(b) s front pants pocket and possibly a jacket pocket. § 87(2)(b) did not note that PO Moncion touched the exterior of these pockets prior to searching them. § 87(2)(b) exited the vehicle, and § 87(2)(b) did not recall the nature of interactions officers had with him. PO Moncion and PO Mestre searched every portion of the vehicle, including opening a bag containing food. provided a statement to the CCRB (Board Review 32), $87(2)(b) that he does not smoke marijuana in the vehicle, and noted that $87(2)(b) does not do so stated that after the vehicle was stopped, PO Mestre instructed him to exit the vehicle, and he complied. After he did this, PO Mestre patted $87(2)(6) s body, reached into coat pockets on his right side, instructed $87(2)(b) to remove the coat, patted down his upper body, reach into a right sweater pocket, and removed items from the sweater pocket. An officer he described as a black female officer with a slim build searched the vehicle. The vehicle contained bags of food and a backpack containing baseball equipment. PO Moncion made one notation in her Memo Book regarding this incident (Board Review 39). The Memo Book entry notes: "Car stop -96 [summons] by me $87(2)(b) PO Moncion provided testimony to the CCRB (Board Review 27). On the date of incident, PO Moncion was assigned to Anti-Crime, worked in plainclothes with PO Bryan Scheblein, and utilized an unmarked vehicle. In her testimony, she stated that she observed a double-parked vehicle at Fordham Road near Loring Street. The area where PO Moncion observed the vehicle was well-lit, and she observed [887(2)(b)] in the driver's seat. PO Moncion activated the police vehicle's lights. § 87(2)(b) s vehicle pulled out and turned left on Fordham Road. It took one or two blocks, approximately one to two minutes, to stop his vehicle. Immediately after the vehicle stopped, PO Moncion observed the vehicle shaking, which appeared to her as though people were moving inside the vehicle. PO Moncion approached the vehicle, though she did not recall which side of the vehicle she approached. PO Moncion asked (SEC)(b) several times for his documentation, and [887(2)] refused to provide them. PO Moncion believed that § 87(2)(b) who was the driver, was acting very aggressively, and that he was acting in a "fidgety" manner in that he was moving his hands and body and speaking in an elevated tone of voice. While speaking with § 87(2)(b) on the driver side of his vehicle, she detected the odor of marijuana. PO Moncion did not observe marijuana inside of the vehicle, which she noted was messy. She noted that she observed a baseball bat inside of the vehicle. Because of s motions inside the vehicle, her observation of the bat, and her observation about the marijuana, PO Moncion was concerned from her safety. She then asked to exit complied immediately. PO Moncion instructed § 87(2)(b) the vehicle. to place his hands on the top of the vehicle. complied, but was acting "fidgety," which she described as periodically removing his hands from the top of the vehicle and moving his body around. PO Moncion believed she conducted a pat-down of 887/2 as he stood at the door of his vehicle. She stated she or PO Scheblein would have conducted this pat-down, and that each officer who interacted with the occupant of their respective side of the vehicle would have been the officer to conduct a pat-down of that occupant. She did not recall if the pat-down she conducted discovered any weapons. The basis of conducting the pat-down was the odor of marijuana. PO Moncion found $87(2)(6) s wallet in his coat pocket. PO Moncion then searched the entirety of vehicle; the search recovered no contraband. The investigation interviewed PO Scheblein (Board Review 28). PO Scheblein reported that when officers first observed s vehicle, it was double-parked at a fire hydrant as they drove north on Andrews towards Fordham Road. When they were almost past vehicle, it pulled out in front of the unmarked police vehicle. At the light at the intersection, the driver and passenger switched seats. PO Scheblein stated that he observed this since the police vehicle was directly behind § 87(2)(b) s vehicle. § 87(2)(b) s vehicle then made a left onto West Fordham Road, but the driver's response was delayed. PO Scheblein stated that delayed responses are usually due to people taking action to hide illegal items in their vehicle. The driver of the vehicle stopped at Cedar and West Fordham Road, which – in his opinion – was not a logical place to stop because it is on a downhill slope with multiple dead-end streets. This series of factors increased PO Scheblein's suspicions about the vehicle. PO Moncion and PO Ledesma approached the vehicle. who was in the front passenger seat, did not immediately roll down his window despite PO Scheblein knocking several times. §87(2)(6) was giving PO Moncion trouble, though he did not provide additional details about this. PO Scheblein called for assistance. PO Scheblein stated that he approached the drivers' side of the vehicle, asked $87(2)(exited, he used his hands to forcibly rotate §87(2)(b) to exit, and when § 87(2)(b) s body so that he was facing his vehicle. refused or appeared to be unable to answer questions about the ownership of the vehicle, and also appeared to be engaging in activity to confuse or frustrate police officers. §87(2)(b) repeatedly insisted that officers had injured him and that PO Scheblein had his wallet. PO Scheblein did not have wallet. This caused PO Scheblein to suspect that $87(2)(b) had ingested mind-altering substances. PO Scheblein conducted a search of police databases to determine whether had a history of mental illness or a history as an emotionally disturbed person. While PO Scheblein interacted with § 87(2)(b) PO Moncion searched s vehicle. PO Scheblein did not attest to detecting the odor of marijuana. The investigation interviewed PO Mestre (Board Review 29). On the date of incident, PO Mestre was assigned to Anti-Crime and was dressed in plainclothes. PO Mestre responded to a request for assistance, but did not recall the reason for the vehicle stop. Upon her arrival on scene, PO Mestre observed PO Moncion instructing to exit his vehicle multiple times; instead, leaned forward in his seat before exiting by gripping the frame of the vehicle door. Because PO Mestre did not know the cause for the vehicle stop, did not comply with officer orders, he leaned in his seat, and he had a "nervous" demeanor, she frisked him. PO Mestre walked back to the passenger side of the vehicle and conducted a "quick search" of

As per Patrol Guide Procedure 212-11 (Board Review 37), officers are permitted to frisk when they reasonably suspect that a person is armed and dangerous. If a frisk reveals an object that an officer reasonably suspects may be a weapon, officers are permitted to search only those interior portions of the stopped person's clothing to remove the weapon.

According to People v. Chestnut, 43 A.D.2d 260 (Board Review 19), officers may search a vehicle and frisk and search its occupants upon detecting the odor of marijuana inside the vehicle.

PO Moncion provided no additional justifications for the frisk, though the investigation noted that in her interview, she also cited the following potentially relevant factors: $87(2)(6)
"fidgety" behavior, his aggression, his failure to initially comply with officer instructions, and the presence of a baseball bat inside of his vehicle. However, none of these factors were an indication that was armed or dangerous. While PO Moncion cited the presence of a baseball bat – an innocuous item that could be used as a weapon – at the time of the frisk and search the bat was not within strong sprays.

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Gina Mestre frisked Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Gina Mestre searched (Section 1). In the BWC footage PO Mestre recorded (Board Review 08), at the 01m30s mark, she is depicted patting (Section 2) as legs, reaching into his sweatshirt pocket, touching the inside and outside of his jacket, and then subsequently reaching into the vehicle interior and moving items inside it.
In her testimony to the CCRB, PO Mestre admitted that she frisked when he exited the vehicle, and explained that she did so because she did not know the cause for the vehicle stop, because did not initially comply with officer orders to exit the vehicle, because he leaned in his seat, and because he had a "nervous" demeanor. While PO Moncion stated that there was an odor of marijuana, PO Mestre did not state that she sensed the odor of marijuana or that any officer relayed such information to her. PO Mestre stated that she did not recall whether she inserted her hands into any of states.
The investigation determined that PO Mestre conducted a frisk because she stated that she did so, and because the frisk is documented on BWC footage. Although PO Mestre stated that she did not recall whether she searched by placing her hands inside any of his pockets, the investigation determined that the search nonetheless occurred because it was documented on BWC footage.

PO Mestre did not cite the presence of the odor of marijuana as a reason for frisking and searching PO Mestre did not know the reason for the vehicle stop, and so there is no information from the vehicle stop that might have influenced her decision to frisk Further, the reported reason for the vehicle stop was a parking violation, which could not provide a justifiable basis for a belief that was armed. Likewise, the observations that a subject of a vehicle stop is nervous and initially noncompliant with officer instructions do not provide a reasonable indication that the civilian is armed.

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: On March 19, 2020, in the vicinity of West Fordham Road and Sedgewick Avenue in the Bronx, Police Officer Christina Moncion searched the vehicle in which §87(2)(b) was an occupant.
As noted above, PO Mestre affirmed in her CCRB statement that she searched vehicle, and her search of the vehicle was captured in BWC footage. In her statement to the CCRB, PO Mestre stated that, upon responding to the incident location in regards to a request for assistance, she conducted "quick search" of the "grabbable areas" of the vehicle from the passenger's side of the vehicle. At the time of the vehicle search, neither $87(2)(6) was inside the vehicle. PO Mestre cited the following reasons for searching the vehicle: $87(2)(6) s nervousness, lack of compliance, and movements while inside the vehicle. She stated that no officers informed explicitly or implicitly informed her of any suspicion that $87(2)(b) was armed or in possession of contraband. As noted in the discussion of Allegations A-B, BWC footage confirms that PO Moncion searched $87000 s vehicle.

In People v. Johnson, 183 A.D.3d 1273 (2020), the court reaffirmed that under the automobile exception to the search warrant requirement, officers are permitted to search a vehicle when they have probable cause to believe that the vehicle contains a weapon or contraband. The court examined a case in which officers stopped a vehicle for a moving violation. After the vehicle was stopped, the defendant made furtive behavior towards the center console, bladed his body away from officers, refused to comply with officers' directives, and ran away from the vehicle. The court determined that even despite these behaviors, the officers were not justified in conducting a warrantless search of the vehicle because there was "no direct nexus between the initial traffic stop for a traffic violation and the search of the defendant's vehicle" or between the subsequent arrest and the vehicle search.

PO Mestre affirmed that she had no specific reason to believe that $87(2)(6) was armed or PO Mestre then took hold of the phone and slammed it on the vehicle roof, from where it fell to the ground.

In the BWC footage PO Mestre recorded, starting at the 00m57s mark, discussion between civilians and officers can be heard about a cell phone, with civilians stating that officers damaged it and officers denying this. Prior to this, seroes exited his vehicle, and officers pressed him against it. No officer action related to a cell phone, including handling or manipulating it, is clearly depicted in PO Mestre's or any other officer's BWC footage. At the 09m10s mark, PO Mestre says, "You can continue to record."
Both PO Mestre and PO Moncion stated that they did not recall whether $870,00 held a phone and whether they heard anyone making a complaint about damage to a phone.
sent a photograph, edited to direct attention to damaged areas of his phone, to the CCRB (Board Review 35). No identifying information about the time the photograph was taken was available.
Despite PO Mestre informing 187(2)(6) that he was free to record footage, the investigation could not credit whether this was consistent with physical actions she may have taken to interfere with his recording. [887(2)(9)

In the BWC footage PO Mestre recorded, at the 00m55s mark, she can be heard stating, "I don't give a fuck whose phone it is. You're not listening. That's the fucking problem."
PO Mestre stated to the CCRB (Board Review 29) that profanity "slipped out" during this interaction because $87(2)(6) and $87(2)(6) were not compliant.
The NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 (Board Review 21) states that officers are to be professional while interacting with members of the public.

Precinct stationhouse while processing the NYS Penal Law and NYS VTL summonses he was ultimately issued.

In his testimony to the CCRB, PO Scheblein stated that he thought the vehicle to possibly associated with the commission of an unspecified crime and that he and PO Moncion may have conducted an inventory search of it, recovering nothing.

In her CCRB testimony, PO Moncion acknowledged that officers conducted an inventory search of the vehicle but did not recall whether she conducted it, PO Scheblein conducted it, or they both did.

The NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 218-13 states that officers are to ensure the safekeeping of civilian property by conducting an inventory search of vehicles and other property that enters their custody (Board Review 36).

Although the statements of PO Scheblein and PO Moncion indicate that officers conducted a search of the vehicle at the stationhouse, neither recalled who searched the vehicle at the stationhouse. Further, the investigation was unable to locate any police documentation to confirm that officers conducted this search or to identify the officers that performed the search.

Police Officer Bryan Scheblein threatened to arrest $87(2)(6) stated that on March 21, 2020, while at the 52 nd Precinct stationhouse, he spoke with an unidentified officer outside it. Solve did not note to the CCRB whether any other civilians were with him or nearby. PO Scheblein and seven to nine additional unidentified officers exited the stationhouse. PO Scheblein spoke with solve and an unidentified officer threatened to arrest him if he did not leave.
PO Scheblein acknowledged to the CCRB in his first interview (Board Review 20) that he threatened to arrest $87000 He stated that he made this threat because $87000 entered the 52 nd Precinct stationhouse while wearing a device with a blinking red light on it, which PO Scheblein thought to be a BWC that was recording footage. PO Scheblein informed that he could be arrested for recording footage inside a stationhouse.
No video footage related to this allegation was obtained by the investigation.
