Case Summary

On August 7, 2020, $87(2)(5) filed this complaint with the CCRB via the CCRB's on-line website [BR01].

On August 7, 2020, at the corner of Washington Square North and 5th Avenue in Manhattan, at approximately 12:05 a.m., a group of approximately 30 civilians gathered as approximately 25 police officers arrested $87(2)(6) and placed him in a police vehicle. An unidentified female (F1) approached Police Officer Shamari Roberts of the 6th Precinct and shined her phone flashlight in his face. PO Roberts extended his arm and made contact with F1's chest (Allegation A: Force, $87(2)(9)). F1 then proceeded to approach PO Roberts and push him in the chest. Police Officer James Scagnelli of the 6th Precinct moved from behind PO Roberts and pushed F1in her chest and shoulder (Allegation B: Force, $87(2)(9)). F1 stumbled back approximately 10 feet and fell on the ground. PO Scagnelli then got on top of F1. Both civilians and officers from the crowd then all piled on and attempted to pull people off PO Scagnelli and F1. followed PO Scagnelli into Washington Square Park and asked for his shield number. PO Scagnelli did not respond to § 87(2)(b) and walked away from her (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(9) was arrested in relation to this incident. § 87(2)(b) provided cell phone footage of the incident [BR02]. There were 12 body-worn camera (BWC) videos provided in relation to this incident over two requests [BR03-BR06].

Allegation (A) Force: Police Officer Shamari Roberts used physical force against

It is undisputed that on August 7, 2020, at approximately 12:05 a.m., $87(2)(b) was arrested inside of Washington Square Park. As he was walked out of the park by multiple officers, a group of civilians followed $87(2)(b) repeatedly yelled at officers asking why $87(2)(b) was being arrested. Civilians continued to gather while $87(2)(b) was being placed in a police vehicle at the corner of Washington Square North and 5th Avenue.

stated that during this time, an unidentified female (F1) was shining a phone camera light in PO Roberts' face and was approximately one foot away from him. PO Roberts extended his arm, to keep distance between himself and F1, making contact with her.

s video (Board Review 08) begins with the interaction between F1 and PO Mangual from a few feet behind F1. While there appears to be some physical interaction between the two, it is unclear exactly what occurs and what PO Robert sees before interacting with F1.

BWC footage from PO Jason Mangual shows at 03:15 minutes, officers walking out of Washington Square Park to a patrol vehicle, while a group of civilians follow behind them. PO Mangual continuously tells the civilians, which include F1, to back up. The civilians do not comply and continue to follow the officers and $37(2)(6) to the police vehicle. At 3:52 minutes, F1 is seen holding her phone with the flashlight on toward the officers as PO Mangual continues to yell, "Get back." PO Roberts comes from behind F1, steps in front of her, and appears to push her back [BR 06].

BWC footage from PO Roberts shows at 04:15 minutes, PO Roberts runs out of Washington Square Park past other officers, breaks through a barrier, approaches F1 from behind, and then pushes her back away from PO Mangual [BR03].

Patrol Guide Procedure No: 221-01 [BR07] states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third party, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody.

§ 87(2)(g)
Allegation (B) Force: Police Officer James Scagnelli used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
Cell phone footage provided by §87(2)(b) shows that after PO Roberts pushes F1, F1 moves back toward PO Roberts and pushes him in the chest. PO Scagnelli immediately pushes F1 in the chest, causing her to fall backward and land on the ground. PO Scagnelli runs toward F1 and gets on top of her. A crowd of both officers and civilians converge on PO Scagnelli and F1 [BR08].
PO Scagnelli stated that he pushed F1 with both of his hands in F1's arms and shoulder area after seeing her push PO Roberts. PO Scagnelli stated that he pushed F1 so he could get her a safe distance away from PO Roberts and other officers in order to arrest her for pushing PO Roberts. PO Scagnelli stated that he wanted to create this distance for the safety of officers and other individuals in the direct vicinity in case F1 was resistant to being arrested. F1 fell to the ground and PO Scagnelli then went on the ground and attempted to grab F1's wrists to handcuff her. F1 physically resisted by moving her hands away from PO Scagnelli's grasps.
Patrol Guide Procedure No: 221-01 states that force may be used when it is reasonable to ensure the safety of a member of the service or a third person, or otherwise protect life, or when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody [BR07].
