Case Summary

Pleading
Sgt. Willis acknowledged entering the sar(2)(6) apparent and provided a reason for doing so.
While Sgt. Willis did not allege that he was instructed to enter by or obtained permission from

Ins. Pagan, Ins. Pagan was the highest ranking officer on scene and clearly identified himself on video as the one in charge. Additionally, Sgt. Willis testified that Ins. Pagan was present on scene prior to his arrival. [887(2)(9)]
Findings and Recommendations Recommendations Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: Ins. Eric Pagan entered and searched § 87(2)(b)
, Manhattan. The following facts are undisputed: Ins. Pagan was the highest ranking officer on scene. Sgt. Willis entered $87(2)(b) after $87(2)(b) exited the apartment and was handcuffed. $87(2)(b) opened the door and exited the apartment peaceably on his own. $87(2)(b) . Finally, video evidence confirms that there were at least five black males who exited the apartment, and $87(2)(b) and one other black male were described as injured and taken outside in handcuffs. The video footage does not show the entry itself.
Sgt. Willis testified that at the point that he entered the apartment, he had not yet confirmed whether they had the suspected perpetrator in custody, and he wanted to enter the apartment in order to confirm that there was no one else inside. Ins. Pagan had no recollection of the incident, despite identifying himself in the video.
An entry into a person's home for purpose of arrest must be based upon probable cause and exigent circumstances. Kirk v. Louisiana, 536 U.S. 635 (2002) (Board Review 18). To determine whether exigent circumstances are present, courts focus on six factors, including: (1) the gravity or violent nature of the offense which the suspect is to be charged; (2) whether the suspect is reasonably believed to be armed; (3) a clear showing of probable cause to believe that the suspect committed the crime; (4) strong reason to believe that the suspect is in the premises being entered; (5) a likelihood that the suspect will escape if not swiftly apprehended; and (6) the peaceful circumstances of the entry. People v. McBride, 14 N.Y.3d 440, 446 (2010) (Board Review 16) quoting U.S. v. Martinez-Gonzalez, 686 F.2d 93, 100 (2d. Cir. 1982) (Board Review 16) These factors are probative for answering the ultimate question of exigency – whether, under all the circumstances present, there is an urgent need for the entry. McBride, at 446.

However, Sgt. Willis testified that at the time, he had not yet determined $87(2)(b) s identity, so did not know whether he was still in the apartment at the time. Sgt. Willis, PO Vega and PO Jackson testified that, prior to entering, they spoke with the victim $87(2)(b) who was in an ambulance on scene. $87(2)(b) and described as a black male, had assaulted her and gone inside his apartment $87(2)(b) (Board Review 10, 14, 15).
Sgt. Willis stated that he did not have any sense how many people were inside the apartment prior to them exiting. The officers testified, and the video shows, that all the males (at least five) were handcuffed as they exited the apartment as the officers were not immediately sure which one was The video also shows that The vide

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: Sgt. Dereon Willis detained It is undisputed by way of $87(2)(b) and Sgt. Willis' testimony, that Sgt. Willis handcuffed $87(2)(b) inside the apartment.
testified that she and her friend, $87(2)(b) were sitting inside her apartment when Sgt. Willis and other officers entered. Sgt. Willis allegedly told $87(2)(b) and walked her outside. Sgt. Willis told $87(2)(b) to remain inside the apartment. $87(2)(b) was unavailable and did not provide a statement to the CCRB.
was released shortly thereafter and was not charged. While the video captures both in the building's hallway, it never shows her in handcuffs.
Sgt. Willis testified that he was looking for a black male with regard to the alleged assault. He described $87(2)(b) as verbally upset as she did not want to be handcuffed, but he described no difficulty in placing her in handcuffs. Further he did not describe any interference or action taken by $87(2)(b) toward or against the police. $87(2)(9)
Allegation C—Discourtesy: Sgt. Dereon Willis acted rudely toward $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ In her CCRB testimony, $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ stated that Sgt. Willis handcuffed her inside the apartment and then walked her into the hallway. Once there, $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ told the officers that she could not breathe because there were many people around her. She also moved her body from side to side so she could get more space. $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ alleged that Sgt. Willis told her to stop moving, removed his baton, and used it to poke her in the stomach five times. This action did not cause $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ pain.
stated that she was on the other side of the hallway and unable to see her daughter at this time. Therefore, she did not know if Sgt. Willis poked her with his baton. However, testified that she heard say(2)(5) say that she could not breathe and that an officer was "poking her in the private parts."
Sgt. Willis denied poking $87(2)(6) with his baton. He stated that he held her by her arms, but did not make any additional contact with her during the incident. PO Vegan and PO Jackson both testified that they did not see Sgt. Willis remove his baton at any point in the incident.
