Case Summary

On January 25, 2017, §87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB via the online complaint form (Board Review 01).
On January 24, 2017, at approximately 2:15 p.m., PO Ronald Remo and PO Steven Mercedes, both of Public Service Area 1, went to §87(2)(b) in Brooklyn in search of , a suspect in a domestic violence case PO Remo was investigating. When they arrived, they saw $87(2)(b) and asked him where they might find $87(2)(b) told them that he did not know, called $87(2)(b) from his own cell phone, and allowed PO Remo to speak with $87(2)(b) told PO Remo that he was not in the building and that he would not be there for a number of hours. After PO Remo and $87(2)(b) spoke over the phone, the officers left. While out of $87(2)(b) s presence, PO Remo called $87(2)(b) supervisor, who did not work inside the building. § 87(2)(b) told PO Remo that § was scheduled to be working at the time, and PO Remo believed her. The officers then walked back to §87(2)(b) and accused him of preventing them from arresting §87(2)(b) (Allegations A and B). PO Remo told §87(2)(b) to tell §87(2)(b) via text message, that the officers had left, thinking this would lure §87(2)(b) into their custody. When §87(2)(b) refused to comply with this directive, the officers accused him of "hindering prosecution" and placed him under arrest (Allegations C and D). After the officers arrested $87(2)(b) PO Remo frisked and searched him (Allegations E and F). PO Remo then seized sphone and sent the text message he had told §87(2)(b) to send moments earlier (Allegations G and H). The officers then waited in the lobby with $87(2)(b) hoping for $87(2)(b) to appear. Meanwhile, $37(2)(b) and the officers began to argue and PO Mercedes told §87(2)(b) to "shut the fuck up" (Allegation I). After a few minutes, $87(2)(b) entered the lobby and was arrested. was then released without being summonsed or kept under arrest. §87(4-b), §87(2)(9) Video cameras from the lobby of the building in which this encounter took place captured this incident. A relevant portion of this footage is embedded below. This clip shows officers speaking to $87(2)(b) before arresting him, frisking and searching him, seizing his phone, and sending a text from it. A longer version of this video is attached in IA15 and transcribed in IA19.

- PO Remo was a subject in five prior CCRB complaints which included a total of 13 allegations. These allegations include one substantiated "Abuse of Authority Stop" allegation in CCRB case number 201501935, for which PO Remo's penalty was Command Discipline A (BR 02).
- PO Mercedes was a subject in three prior CCRB complaints which included a total of 14 allegations. These allegations include two substantiated "Abuse of Authority Stop" allegations in CCRB cases number 200909919 and 200916205, for which PO Mercedes' penalty was Instruction, and one substantiated "Abuse of Authority Frisk" allegation, for which PO Mercedes' penalty was Instruction (BR 02).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A –Abuse of Authority: PO Ronald Remo stopped §87(2)(b) Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: PO Steven Mercedes stopped $87(2)(5)
It is undisputed that PO Remo and PO Mercedes went to $87(2)(b) seeking to arrest § 87(2)(b) worked in the building, and the officers sought to arrest him in connection with a domestic violence complaint. It is also undisputed that when PO Remo and PO Mercedes arrived, they stopped $87(2)(b) who also worked in the building, to ask where they might find $87(2)(b) Though $87(2)(b) did not know where $87(2)(b) was, he assisted the officers by allowing PO Remo to use his phone to call §87(2)(b)  Over the phone, §87(2)(b) told PO Remo that he was not in the building. They spoke for a few minutes, and PO Remo returned § 87(2)(b) s phone before the officers walked to another part of the building. PO Remo, in his statement to the CCRB said that, while out of $87(2)(b) s sight, he contacted $37(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) employer, § 87(2)(b) (BR 03). Though § 87(2)(b) did not work in the building, she had access to $87(2)(b) work schedule, and she told PO Remo that $87(2)(b) was scheduled to be in the building, and PO Remo believed her. In his statement to the CCRB, said that, minutes later, both PO Remo and PO Mercedes returned to stop him a second time and to accuse him of lying to them about where $87(2)(b) was (BR 04). $87(2)(b) attempted to walk away from the officers, but they would not allow him to leave, and continued to ask accusatory questions. Enclosed video footage of this incident, though without sound, shows the officers speaking to $87(2)(b) in the lobby of the building and following him as he attempts to walk away from them.
