IAB Testimony

provided two separate telephone statements to Sgt. Scott Reiser of IAB Group 54 or February 18, 2014 and February 21, 2014. On February 27, 2014, $87(2)(b) was interviewed by Det. Gregory Parker and Sgt. Patrick Romain, also of Group 54, at the offices of $37(2)(b) s civil attorney, $87(2)(b) s civil attorney, $87(2)(c) In his IAB testimony, however, $37(2)(c)

CCRB Testimony
was interviewed at the CCRB on March 11, 2014 (Encl. 7C-F). His civil attorney, was present during the statement. § 87(2)(9) answered several follow-up questions over the telephone on May 19, 2014 (Encl. 7G).
At approximately 7:30 p.m. on February 18, 2014, $87(2)(b) was issued a parking summons in front of a Popeye's restaurant located at 1128 Eastern Parkway, in Brooklyn. The summons was issued by PO Mario Altilio. Also present at the time were PO Altilio's partners, Lt. Erik Worobey and PO Weber Wesh. All three officers were from Patrol Borough Brooklyn South. After receiving the summons, $87(2)(b) decided to drive to the 71st Precinct stationhouse to complain about it.
When strived at the stationhouse, he parked his car along New York Avenue, just north of the main entrance. He then walked into the building. Immediately past the front door was a low gate, blocking access to the stationhouse's front desk. The gate was approximately seven feet from the front desk. Two uniformed officers stood behind the desk. Strive described these officers as black males, but the investigation identified them as Sgt. Larry Meyers (a white male) and PO Ismael Rivera (a Hispanic male) of the 71st Precinct. Strive further described two other uniformed officers, described as a 5'9" heavyset bald white male, and a 5'11" white male with brown hair. The investigation identified these officers, respectively, as PO Stephen D'Amico and PO Phillip Rossomando. It also determined that a third officer, PO Elijah Boyle, was also standing with PO D'Amico and PO Rossomando at the time. No other civilians or officers were present in the room at the time.
approached the front desk and told Sgt. Meyers and PO Rivera that he wished to file a complaint in regards to his summons. Neither of them responded. Instead, PO D'Amico asked Sgt. Meyers if he wanted him to deal with S37(2)(b) Sgt. Meyers told him, "Yeah." PO D'Amico then turned towards S37(2)(b) He held both of his hands up towards S37(2)(b) and started walking towards him. As he advanced, PO D'Amico twice told S37(2)(b) "Get the fuck out of the building." S37(2)(b) stepped backwards and held his hand up towards PO D'Amico, telling him that he would leave the stationhouse on his own. He then turned and walked out of the front door. S37(2)(b) s demeanor was calm at the time, and he did not raise his voice towards the officers.
Once $87(2)(b) left the building, however, a group of approximately ten uniformed officers followed him outside and formed a circle around him. The investigation was able to identify several of these officers, including PO D'Amico, PO Boyle, PO Rossomando, PO Altilio, PO Wesh, and Sgt. Meyers, as well as PO Paul Mallilo and PO Ryan Norwood. $87(2)(b) also

Subject Officer: PO ELIJAH BOYLE

- PO Boyle, old at the time of the incident, is a 5'9", 250-pound Hispanic male with brown hair and hazel eyes. He does not wear glasses.
- PO Boyle worked from 2:30 p.m. on February 18, 2014 until 12:05 a.m. on February 19, 2014. He was assigned to sectors F and J with PO Stephen D'Amico. PO Boyle was in uniform, and assigned to marked RMP #3453.

Memo Book

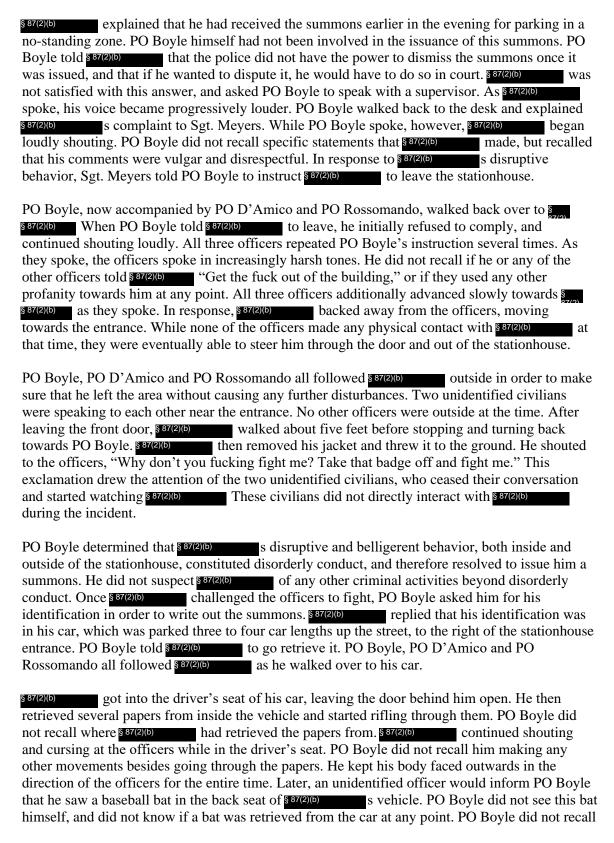

At 7:49 p.m. on February 18, 2014, PO Boyle returned from patrol to perform administrative duty at the 71st Precinct stationhouse. While there, a male entered the stationhouse to dispute a parking summons. When instructed on how to dispose of his summons, the male became loud. The desk officer told the male to leave the premises. Once the male exited the building, he removed his jacket and threatened to fight several officers, stating, "Why don't you fucking fight me? Take that badge off and fight me." The male was then informed that he was going to receive a summons for disorderly conduct, and was instructed to produce identification. He replied that his identification was in his car. When the male got into his car to retrieve the identification, however, he began cursing at the officers. The male was subsequently removed from the vehicle, taken to the ground, and placed in handcuffs. He resisted the officers by flailing his arms. The male was taken into the stationhouse's holding cells, where he was examined by EMS. Lt. Worobey later decided that the male would be treated as an emotionally disturbed person (EDP) (Encl. 8A-E).

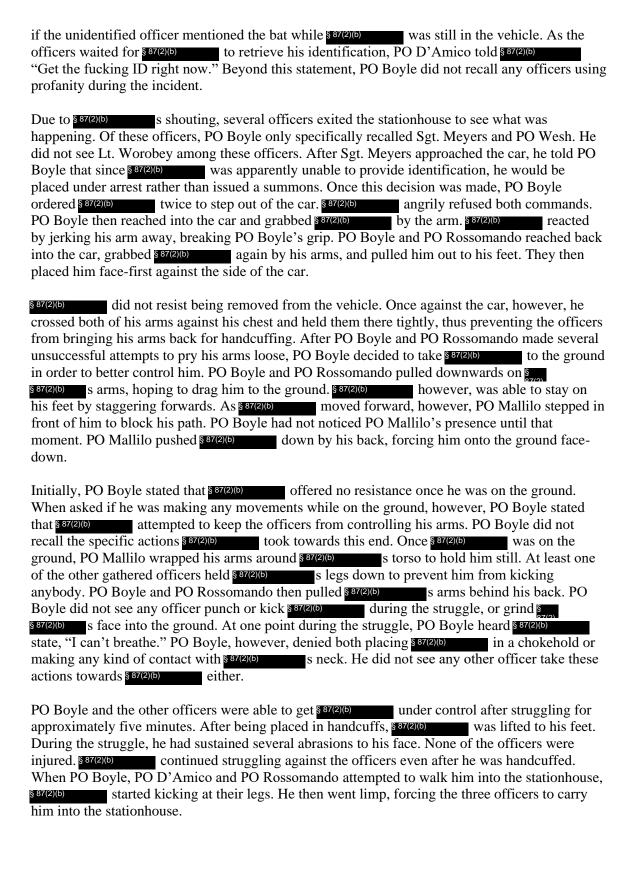

CCRB Testimony

PO Boyle was interviewed at the CCRB on July 18, 2014 (Encl. 8F-I). At approximately 7:49 p.m. on February 18, 2014, PO Boyle and his partner, PO D'Amico, returned to the 71st Precinct stationhouse from patrol in order to perform administrative duties. Several minutes after they returned to the stationhouse, PO Boyle and PO D'Amico were standing near the stationhouse's front desk, by the main entrance. Sgt. Meyers, the desk officer, and PO Rivera, were working behind the desk. PO Rossomando, also performing administrative duties, was standing next to the desk near PO Boyle. PO Boyle did not recall if there were any other officers or any civilians in the vicinity of the desk at the time.

At approximately 8:00 p.m., a male, identified by the investigation as $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ entered the stationhouse and approached PO Rivera at the front desk. $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ told PO Rivera that he had just received a parking summons, and wanted it to be dismissed. $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ appeared visibly upset, but was speaking in a normal tone of voice. Before PO Rivera had a chance to respond to $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ PO Boyle stepped forward and offered to handle the matter. He and $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ stepped several feet away from the desk and spoke to each other one-on-one. No other officers were involved in this conversation.

Memo Book
PO D'Amico's memo book entry was consistent with PO Boyle's (Encl. 9A-D).
CCRB Testimony
PO D'Amico was interviewed at the CCRB on September 17, 2014 (Encl. 9E-G). §87(2)(9)
PO D'Amico stated that $87(2)(b) only spoke to Sgt. Meyers when he first entered the stationhouse. He also stated that $87(2)(b) was acting in a loud and disruptive fashion while complaining about his summons. PO D'Amico only approached $87(2)(b) after Sgt. Meyers had ordered him to leave the stationhouse. He denied that he or any other officer told $87(2)(b) "Get the fuck out of the building."
PO D'Amico confirmed that he followed $87(2)(b) out of the stationhouse with PO Boyle. The investigation further determined that PO Rossomando was with them at the time. After $87(2)(b) demanded to fight the gathered officers, PO Boyle told $87(2)(b) that he was going to be issued a summons for disorderly conduct, and instructed $87(2)(b) to retrieve his identification. PO D'Amico denied telling $87(2)(b) or hearing any officer tell $87(2)(b) (Get the fucking ID right now." He denied hearing any officer use profanity at any point during the incident.
While PO D'Amico, PO Boyle and PO Rossomando waited for $37(2)(b) to retrieve his identification from his vehicle, several other officers gathered to see what was happening. PO D'Amico recalled seeing PO Mallilo, PO Altilio, PO Wesh and PO Rivera among the group, but did not recall seeing Lt. Worobey or Sgt. Meyers. While in the vehicle, $87(2)(b) reached into and back seats. He continued shouting as he searched. Eventually, PO Boyle informed $87(2)(b) that if he could not provide identification, then he would be taken into the stationhouse. § 97(2)(b) continued shouting at the officers. PO Boyle then forcibly removed $87(2)(b) from the vehicle. PO D'Amico did not recall how, exactly, PO Boyle took § 87(2)(b) out of the car. continued shouting and flailing his arms once he was removed from the car. was forcibly taken to the ground by the gathered officers, but PO D'Amico did not recall how, specifically, they brought him down. Once on the ground, $87(2)(b) positioned on his front, where several officers tried to gain control of his arms. While PO D'Amico stated that § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his arms to the officers at that time, he did not recall what specific movements §87(2)(b) made at that time. PO D'Amico did not see any officers punch or kick § 87(2)(b) or grind his face against the ground. He did not see any officers place $37(2)(b) in a chokehold, or otherwise make contact with his neck. PO D'Amico did not see any officers use any force against $87(2)(b) beyond bringing him to the ground and grabbing his arms. was handcuffed after about a minute. Several officers stood around him immediately afterwards. Shortly after $37(2)(b) was handcuffed, he shouted out that he could not breathe. PO D'Amico reiterated that he did not see any officers choking or making contact s neck at that time. He did not see any officers pushing down on $87(2)(6) or otherwise using their weight against him at that time either. As soon as §87(2)(b) made this complaint, the officers lifted him up to his feet. PO D'Amico noted that $87(2)(b) suffered several cuts to his forehead during the struggle, but did not specify how §87(2)(b) sustained them. was carried into the stationhouse's holding cell area. He did not recall seeing any officer touch § 87(2)(b) s groin at any time. When informed by Lt. Worobey that § 87(2)(b) would be treated as an EDP rather than as a s seemingly irrational anger over a simple parking prisoner, PO D'Amico noted that § 87(2)(b) summons indicated that he likely was emotionally disturbed at the time of the incident. PO D'Amico was not present when § 87(2)(b) was treated by EMS or hospitalized. Subject Officer: PO PHILLIP ROSSOMANDO

PO Rossomando denied seeing any officer punch or kick $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ or grind his face against the ground. No officer placed $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ in a chokehold, or otherwise made contact with $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ s neck. PO Rossomando did not hear either $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ complain of having difficulty breathing, or any officer tell $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ "If you can say you can't breathe, you can breathe." When $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ fell to the ground, he suffered several abrasions on his forehead.
After his arrest, $\mathbb{\math
Lt. Worobey also informed PO Rossomando that $87(2)(b) would be handled as an EDP, rather than as a prisoner. $87(2)(b) was subsequently examined by EMS and removed to a hospital. PO Rossomando, however, had no further interactions with $87(2)(b) after bringing him into the stationhouse.
 Witness Officer: SGT. LARRY MEYERS Sgt. Meyers, $37(2)(b) old at the time of the incident, is a 5'11", 165-pound white male with black hair and brown eyes. He does not wear glasses. On February 18, 2014, Sgt. Meyers worked from 2:30 p.m. until 11:47 p.m. He was assigned as the desk officer for the 71st Precinct. He was in uniform, and worked inside the stationhouse.
Memo Book
At 8:00 p.m. on February 18, 2014, $\frac{857(2)(0)}{2}$ entered the 71 st Precinct stationhouse to complain about a parking summons. When he was instructed on how to dispose of the summons, became upset and started shouting profanities. Sgt. Meyers ordered $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ to leave the stationhouse. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ continued using profanity as he left. PO Boyle, PO D'Amico and PO Rossomando all followed $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ out of the stationhouse. Sgt. Meyers initially remained in the stationhouse, but heard shouting outside. When he went outside to investigate the noise, he observed $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ acting in a deranged and disturbed manner, shouting, "You're a nigger," and, "I will fight you." $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ refused multiple requests for his identification. He was then removed from his car and taken into protective custody. Officers took $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ to the ground, causing a cut to his forehead. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ refused to show his hands while he was on the ground, leading officers to use unspecified force to restrain him. Once $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ was handcuffed, he kicked and the officers and told them, "I will punch your face." EMS was called, and $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ was placed in an isolated holding cell. At 8:08 p.m., EMS arrived at the stationhouse. Lt. Erik Worobey was informed of the situation. At 8:50 p.m., PO Wesh and PO Altilio escorted $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ to $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ (Encl. 11A-D).
CCRB Testimony
Sgt. Meyers was interviewed at the CCRB on June 19, 2014 (Encl. 11E-H). §87(2)(9)

After a short struggle, the officers managed to restrain $37(2)(b) and bring him to his feet. Once up, Sgt. Meyers noticed that he had a cut on his forehead. He did not see how $37(2)(b) sustained this injury, but assumed that it was from when he was taken to the ground. $37(2)(b) continued shouting profanities and threats to the officers after he was handcuffed.

Once $87(2)(b) was taken inside, Sgt. Meyers returned to the front desk and resumed his administrative duties. PO Boyle, PO D'Amico and PO Rossomando escorted $87(2)(b) back into the holding cells. Sgt. Meyers did not see what, if any, actions these officers took towards while in the holding cell area, though he was later told that he was isolated in a separate cell. Sgt. Meyers did not see any officer pull down $87(2)(b) s pants, expose his underwear, or otherwise remove any articles of clothing. While Sgt. Meyers stated that it would have been standard procedure to search any individuals being taken into police custody, he did not specifically see any such search himself.

Once $\frac{\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}}{2}$ was placed in the holding cell, Sgt. Meyers began preparing an entry in the command log to document the incident. He initially placed an arrest stamp in the log, believing that while $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ was not technically under arrest, it was important to record his personal information nonetheless. After placing the stamp, however, he instead wrote a brief summary of the incident underneath. He then crossed out the stamp.

After $87(2)(b) was lodged in the holding cells, Lt. Worobey and Captain Thomas Burke approached Sgt. Meyers to find out what had happened. Neither supervisor had been involved with the incident before that point. After hearing Sgt. Meyers' account, Lt. Worobey went into the holding cell area to speak to $87(2)(b) Captain Burke did not interact with $87(2)(b) at any point. EMS was subsequently called for $87(2)(c) both for his injuries and due to his status as an EDP. The ambulance arrived within minutes. $87(2)(c) was then transported to $87(2)(c) Sgt. Meyers did not travel with him, and did not know what treatment he might have received there.

Subject Officer: PO MARIO ALTILIO

- PO Altilio, [887(2)(b)] old at the time of the incident, is a 5'10", 160-pound white male with brown hair and brown eyes. He does not wear glasses.
- On February 18, 2014, PO Altilio worked from 3:00 p.m. until 11:35 p.m. He was assigned as the operator for Lt. Erik Worobey. He also worked with PO Weber Wesh. PO Altilio was in uniform, and assigned to a marked van, RMP #8870.

At 8:00 p.m., PO Altilio traveled to the 71st Precinct stationhouse. At 8:05 p.m., PO Altilio heard a commotion outside of the stationhouse. When he went outside to investigate, he saw several officers asking the driver that he had issued the parking summons to earlier to leave the stationhouse. The driver was acting in an aggressive and disorderly fashion, and wanted to fight the officers. PO Altilio suspected that the driver might have been an EDP. The male was placed in handcuffs to ensure officer safety. EMS was then called to examine him. At 8:30 p.m., the driver was examined by EMS. LT. Worobey decided that the driver would be treated as an EDP. At 8:45 p.m., the driver was taken to $\frac{8:7(2)(b)}{2.00} \text{ At 9:00 p.m., PO Altilio traveled to the hospital to return the driver's possessions to him (Encl. 12A-C).

While PO Altilio wrote out a parking summons, the vehicle's owner, came out of a nearby restaurant to complain. $87(2)(b) spoke to Lt. Worobey and PO Wesh while PO Altilio wrote the summons. $87(2)(b) was visibly upset at the time. PO Altilio, PO Wesh and Lt. Worobey resumed patrol once the summons was issued.

At approximately 8:00 p.m., PO Altilio and his partners returned to the 71st Precinct stationhouse so Lt. Worobey could check his email. When they walked into the stationhouse lobby, PO Altilio observed speaking to Sgt. Meyers, the desk officer. He did not recall if there were any other civilians or officers in the lobby at the time. PO Altilio did not recall what street and Sgt. Meyers were speaking about, and did not recall what street speaking about, and did not recall what street at the time. Neither PO Altilio nor either of his partners spoke to street at that time. Lt. Worobey went to the offices upstairs, while PO Altilio and PO Wesh entered the restrooms located next to the lobby.

When PO Altilio exited the restroom about five minutes later, he noted that $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ was no longer in the lobby. He heard several voices shouting outside of the stationhouse. PO Altilio could not tell who was shouting, or what they were saying. When PO Altilio went outside to investigate, he saw several officers standing by $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ in front of the stationhouse entrance. PO Altilio did not recall who these officers were. PO Altilio did not know why $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ had left the stationhouse, or why the gathered officers had approached him. He did not recall if there were any other civilians outside at the time.

was acting in an irate manner. He waved his arms at his side and shouted at the officers around them, demanding both that they leave him alone, and that they fight him. One of the officers asked $87(2)(b) for his identification. PO Altilio did not know why this officer was asking $87(2)(b) for identification. $87(2)(b) refused to provide his identification, and started walking towards his car, which was parked approximately one hundred feet down the street from the stationhouse entrance. The officers followed him to the car, but did not initially make any physical contact. PO Altilio did not hear any of the officers tell $87(2)(b) "Get out of the fucking building," or, "Get the fucking ID." He did not hear any officers use profanity at any point.

PO Altilio walked over to the car to see what was happening. As he approached, however, the gathered officers started struggling with $87(2)(b) in an effort to handcuff him. PO Altilio did not know why $87(2)(b) was being handcuffed at that point. He did not recall seeing $87(2)(b) enter the car before the struggle began. $87(2)(b) continued shouting and flailing his arms during the struggle. He did not recall what specific actions the gathered officers took towards $87(2)(b) at that time. Right before PO Altilio reached the car, he saw $87(2)(b) fall to the ground. PO Altilio did not recall if $87(2)(b) fell to the ground accidentally, or if he was deliberately brought down by the officers. $87(2)(b) continued shouting and flailing his arms while on the ground. At least one officer ordered $87(2)(b) to stop resisting.
Once $87(2)(b) went to the ground, PO Altilio joined in the struggle. At about this time, PO Wesh came out of the stationhouse as well and joined in the struggle. PO Altilio did not recall the names of any of the other officers who struggled with $87(2)(b) on the ground. PO Altilio, PO Wesh and the other officers grabbed $87(2)(b) s arms and pulled them behind his back. PO Altilio did not see any officers punch or kick $87(2)(b) grind $87(2)(b) s face against the ground, or place him in a chokehold. He did not see any officer make contact with $87(2)(b) s neck. He did not hear $87(2)(b) complain of having any difficulty breathing, or hear any officer tell $87(2)(b) "If you can say you can't breathe, you can breathe."

PO Altilio did not see any officer remove struggle spants or other articles of clothing.
Once $87(2)(b) was lodged in the cell, Lt. Worobey informed PO Altilio that he would be treated as an EDP, rather than as a prisoner. PO Altilio was not aware of Lt. Worobey having any involvement with $87(2)(b) before that point. While there had been no prior discussion of $87(2)(b) s mental state before then, PO Altilio felt, based on $87(2)(b) s irrational and aggressive manner, that he might be emotionally disturbed. $87(2)(b) was taken by EMS to $87(2)(b) for evaluation. PO Altilio drove $87(2)(b) s car behind the ambulance and parked it at the hospital so that $87(2)(b) would have access to it upon discharge. PO Altilio returned to the stationhouse after parking the car.

PO Wesh did not see any officers punch or kick $87(2)(b) or grind his face against the ground. He did not see any officer place $87(2)(b) in a chokehold, or otherwise make contact with his neck. •	alleged that he was stopped by a group of eight to ten officers outside of the stationhouse. This group included the officers he spoke to next to the front desk, as well as the white male officer who had written his parking summons. PO D'Amico has already been identified as one of these officers. PO Boyle and PO Rossomando both stated that they participated in $87(2)(b) s stop. $87(2)(b) s summons was issued by PO Altilio, who is a white male.
	In contrast, the officers interviewed consistently stated that PO Boyle, PO D'Amico and PO Rossomando were the officers who initially stopped $87(2)(b) outside of the stationhouse. The remaining officers, including PO Altilio, stated that they only arrived after the stop had already been effected. Given §87(2)(6) s difficulties in providing details about the other officers who stopped him and the officers' consistency across statements, the preponderance of the evidence indicates that § 87(2)(b) initially stopped by PO D'Amico, PO Boyle, and PO Rossomando, rather than by a larger group. § 87(2)(g) alleged that a heavyset blond 6'1" white male with glasses placed him in a chokehold and forced his face against the ground. He stated that this officer had not been present either at the issuance of the summons or during his initial interaction by the front desk. He did not provide this officer's name or shield number.

points during the incident, § 87(2)(b) gave inaccurate descriptions of other officers he interacted with. He described both officers he observed behind the front desk as being black males, even though police testimony and documentation clearly identified them as a white male and a Hispanic male. He additionally described PO D'Amico as being bald, despite him having brown hair. § 37(2)(b) also failed to appear for two separate photo viewing sessions without calling ahead to cancel or reschedule. None of the officers interviewed are blond or wear glasses, and none of them recalled seeing an officer either choking §87(2)(b) or slamming §87(2)(b) s head against the ground. The investigation was unable to identify any further officers who might have been involved in the incident. No officers recalled any additional officers beyond those already interviewed, and no additional units were listed as being present in the SPRINT or the interrupted patrol log. A review of stationhouse assignments in the roll call yielded two additional officers beyond those already identified: PO Taylor, the community affairs officer, and PO Demark, the auxiliary coordinator. Neither officer matches s description of the subject officer. Neither was named by any of the officers who were present. Allegations Not Pleaded Investigative Findings and Recommendations Allegation A: Discourtesy – Inside of the 71st Precinct stationhouse, PO Stephen D'Amico spoke discourteously towards § 87(2)(b) alleged that while he was inside of the stationhouse, PO D'Amico told him, "Get the fuck out of the building." None of the officers interviewed recalled hearing any officer either make this statement or otherwise use profanity against § 87(2)(b) inside of the stationhouse. Allegation B: Abuse of Authority – Outside of the 71st Precinct stationhouse, PO Stephen D'Amico stopped § 87(2)(b) Allegation C: Abuse of Authority – Outside of the 71st Precinct stationhouse, PO Elijah Boyle stopped § 87(2)(b) Allegation D: Abuse of Authority – Outside of the 71st Precinct stationhouse, PO Phillip Rossomando stopped § 87(2)(b) It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) was stopped after leaving the 71st Precinct stationhouse. Before the stop, §87(2)(b) denied having taken any kind of disruptive or provocative action towards the officers, and stated that he maintained a calm and cooperative demeanor throughout the encounter. PO Boyle, PO D'Amico, PO Rossomando all stated that $87(2)(b) was acting in a loud and disruptive manner
