• § 87(2)(b)
CCRB Statement
On November 6, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was interviewed by the CCRB (Encl. 9A-9I). Her statement is summarized below.
On August 16, 2013, at 11:30 p.m., §87(2)(b) drove her silver 2013 Hyundai Sonata, NYS license plate 887(2)(b) , with passenger 887(2)(b) seated in the front passenger seat in the vicinity of 700 South Avenue in Staten Island. At the corner of Goethals Road North and South Avenue, there had been in accident and an officer, identified by §87(2)(b) as PO Johnny Castillo of the 121 st Precinct, was directing traffic through the intersection. When s car reached the front of the procession of cars, PO Castillo waved his hand and indicated for $87(2)(b) to drive forward through the green light. $87(2)(b) drove straight with the left passenger side of her car passing closest to PO Castillo, with his hip facing the car. did not come close to PO Castillo and did not nearly hit him. $87(2)(b) did not speed past PO Castillo, but drove slowly into the Sunoco gas station located across the street on the corner at 700 South Avenue.
drove up to the minimart to pay with cash and use the restroom. entered the minimart and heard someone shouting, "Hey." $87(2)(b) turned and saw PO Castillo, but she did not recognize him as the same officer that had been directing traffic. PO Castillo told $87(2)(b) that she nearly hit him with her car and she denied that that had occurred. PO Castillo repeated over and over that $87(2)(b) had nearly hit him and she argued with him that she did not. $87(2)(6) did not use any profanity and she was not screaming at that time. PO Castillo told $87(2)(b) to go outside and provide her license and registration. PO Castillo did not indicate that $87(2)(b) would be summonsed or arrested.

entered her car and removed her license from her wallet. §87(2)(b) remained seated in the car and he was not addressed by PO Castillo, the only officer present at that time. PO Castillo told $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ that she appeared to be drunk for reasons unknown to her and she said that she was not. [887(2)(0)] provided PO Castillo with her license and at some point PO Castillo walked away and obtained a breathalyzer test. § 87(2)(b) stood outside of her car, took the breathalyzer test and blew zero. §87(2)(b) sat back inside of her car and DO Costilla calcad has accorded times to suit $60(200) sat back inside of her car and PO Castillo asked her several times to exit. §87(2)(b) initially refused because she did not know why she should exit again after passing the breathalyzer test. PO Castillo did not indicate that she was going to be arrested. §87(2)(b) exited and PO Castillo handcuffed her and immediately threw her to the ground. $87(2)(5) hit the right side of her head underneath her hair on the concrete and suffered a concussion. PO Castillo held her down in the upper part of her back and compressed her chest making it difficult for her to breathe. $87(2)(5) was held in that position for more than 10 minutes. §87(2)(b) did not resist in any way. §87(2)(b) screamed for $87(2)(b) to call her father from her cell phone inside of the car. did not hear PO Castillo call for back up. She observed police officers boots arriving from her position on the ground and then she was lifted to her feet. A uniformed officer, described as a white man, 6' tall, with a large build and glasses stood on her right hand and held her arm. This officer has been identified by the investigation as PO Jose Alicea of the 121st Precinct. $887(2)(b) told PO Alicea that he was hurting her arm and he said, "I'll fucking break your arm," and held her tighter. $87(2)(b) sustained bruises to her upper arms. An officer, whom she identified as PO Michael Carr of the 121st Precinct, and described as a black man, stood on her left on top of her exposed left foot in her sandals. §87(2)(b) moved her foot from underneath PO Carr's boot and he said that he said not to move and then stomped on her left foot causing pain and abrasions.
Approximately 30 officers responded in multiple cars and there was a helicopter overhead. §87(2)(6) did not know of any other reason why the officers were there and she was not accused of anything other than PO Castillo's accusation that she had almost hit him with her car. An officer, whom §87(2)(b) did not see, pulled her to a patrol car and pushed her inside. As she was being placed in the patrol car, $87(2)(b) hit her lip against the hood of the car and she burst her bottom lip. This officer was not identified by the investigation. A uniformed officer, described as a white man, 5'5" tall, with light colored eyes and hair, entered the driver's seat after $87(2)(b) was put in the car. An officer whom $87(2)(b) could not describe entered the passenger's seat. These officers were not identified by the investigation. §87(2)(b) watched as an officer described as a white man searched the inside of her car and the trunk lining and her luggage. This officer was not identified by the investigation. PO Castillo later told that he located a marijuana clip in the center console; she denied she had marijuana anywhere in her car. was taken to a location with holding cells, but it was not the 121st Precinct stationhouse. §87(2)(b) knows the 121st Precinct stationhouse because it was newly built, but she was not taken there. § 87(2)(b) was not asked if she was alone in the cells. PO Castillo spoke with a plainclothes officer whom §87(2)(b) could not describe and said that she was a bitch and had almost hit him with her car. §87(2)(b) overheard there conversation and said, "Excuse me," to which PO Castillo replied, "Sit the fuck down and shut up," and said repeatedly that she was going to Rikers Island. felt pain all over her body and an EMS worker came to speak with her, but she was informed that she would be taken to the hospital as a prisoner and she declined treatment.
PO Castillo took §87(2)(b) s photograph and fingerprints and then she was taken to Staten Island Central Booking. At Staten Island Central Booking, a court officer asked her why she was limping; $87(2)(b) later learned that she sustained fractures to two of her toes on her right foot, but she did not know when or how that occurred. §87(2)(b) did not mention what happened to her vehicle after the incident.

Photo Array

On August 28, 2014, $87(2)(6) arrived at the CCRB for a photo array appointment with her attorney present. (Encl. 10A).

stated that photograph number one of PO Michael Dicecoo was similar, however, she stated this was not the officer that she interacted with on the date of the incident.

stated that photograph number two most closely resembled the officer that stated to her, "I'll fucking break it," as he grabbed her right shoulder. Photograph number two shows PO Sean Haggerty. Sa7(2)(b) stated that this officer has similar eye color and bone structure but she was not positive that it was definitely him. Sa7(2)(b) did not positively identify PO Haggerty's partner PO Alex Fernsmith during the photo array.

also stated that the officer in photograph number six, which is Sgt. Dmitry Brushnivsky, looked similar to one of the officers that arrived at the incident location. She stated that the officer in the photograph had similar eyes but was not involved in the assault.

Phone Statement

On November 29, 2013, $87(2)(5) provided a phone statement to the CCRB (Encl. 11A). $87(2)(5) was scheduled for a CCRB appointment on March 17, 2014 but missed his appointment without calling ahead of time to cancel or reschedule. On the aforementioned date a missed appointment letter was mailed to $87(2)(5) via the United States Postal Service and this letter was not returned to the CCRB. His phone statement is summarized below.

On August 16, 2013, $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(c) went out for drinks upon her return from a trip to Miami, Florida. $87(2)(c) stated that he was with $87(2)(c) for approximately one hour before the incident began and did not state what they drank or how much they drank. There had been an accident near the intersection at 700 South Street in Staten Island and an officer was directing traffic. The officer alleged that $87(2)(c) drove past him too closely and he aggressively approached the car and $87(2)(c) said that $87(2)(c) went to use the bathroom. An officer and $87(2)(c) returned to the car and he requested $87(2)(c) s license and registration. This officer has been identified by the investigation as PO Castillo. PO Castillo and $87(2)(c) said she was not under any influence.

was asked to exit and she refused. PO Castillo removed her from the car and then banged $87(2)(6) s body against the car and then to the ground to handcuff her.

Numerous officers responded and $87(2)(6) was kicking and screaming, "You're hurting my arm." An officer whom $87(2)(6) did not see said, "I don't give a fuck, I'll break your arm."

This officer was identified by the investigation as PO Alicea.

After $87(2)(b) was handcuffed, $87(2)(b) was removed from the car and questioned about whether $87(2)(b) was on drugs. $87(2)(b) admitted that they had gone out for drinks and that $87(2)(b) had returned from a vacation that had gone bad.

Approximately two to three officers, whom $87(2)(b) could not see clearly, searched through $87(2)(b) search the car from approximately five feet away while he was being questioned. These officers were not identified by the investigation.

His testimony is summarized below. On August 16, 2013, at 11:10 p.m., PO Castillo was directing traffic following an accident near 700 South Avenue in Staten Island. PO Castillo directed all traffic to make a left; sped towards him, nearly hit him and drove past him and entered the gas station. PO Castillo followed $87(2)(b) to the gas station and she was already in the store. PO Castillo approached and told $87(2)(6) to get back into her car. § 87(2)(b)

• On August 16, 2013, Lt. Trabulsy worked in uniform from 2:45 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. He was assigned as the Platoon Commander for Patrol and was working alone inside of marked vehicle number 5685.

Memo Book

Lt. Trabulsy did not have any related memo book entries regarding this incident. Lt. Trabulsy responded towards the end of the incident. At 8:35 p.m., he responded to and at 11:30 p.m., he ended his tour (Encl. 16A-16C).

CCRB Statement

On April 8, 2014, Lt. Trabulsy was interviewed by the CCRB (Encl. 17A-17C). His statement was generally consistent with that of PO Castillo and is summarized below.

On August 16, 2013, at approximately 11 p.m., Lt. Trabulsy heard PO Castillo's request for additional police assistance as he conducted routine patrol nearly ten minutes away on the other side of Staten Island. Lt. Trabulsy arrived alone at 700 South Avenue and observed multiple officers on the scene. The only other supervisor present was Sgt. Dmitry Brushnivsky of the 121st Precinct. Lt. Trabulsy did not recall what Sgt. Brushnivsky had been doing at the incident location. **ST(2)(5)*** was handcuffed and seated inside of a patrol car from the 121st Precinct. Lt. ser(2)(b) nearly struck him with her car and that she was arrested and charged with driving under the influence, among other charges that Lt. Trabulsy did not recall. PO Castillo said that force had been used during § 87(2)(b) s arrest, but he did not explicitly state what force was used. PO Castillo described § 87(2)(b) as having flailed her arms. Lt. Trabulsy did not recall whether PO Castillo said he believed $87(2)(b) had smelled like marijuana or was under the influence of marijuana. PO Castillo informed Lt. Trabulsy that he found marijuana, but Lt. Trabulsy did not know where the marijuana had been recovered from or whether PO Castillo or another officer recovered it from § 87(2)(b) or her vehicle. An inventory search would have been conducted of $87(2)(b) s car because the vehicle was taken to the 121st Precinct stationhouse. Lt. Trabulsy did not search the vehicle and he did not see any other officers search the vehicle at 700 South Avenue or the 121st Precinct stationhouse. Lt. Trabulsy did not search the interior or trunk of the vehicle and he did not search s luggage. Lt. Trabulsy said that he would have authorized for the vehicle to be searched, including the luggage, because, "It can pose a danger to the officers that were moving the car to the stationhouse, for instance, the luggage could contain a bomb." Lt. Trabulsy disputed that his decision to search the contents of a car during an inventory search would be influenced in any way by the behavior of the vehicle's owner. but only glanced at her seated in the back Lt. Trabulsy did not speak with §87(2)(b) of a patrol car. Lt. Trabulsy did not notice any injuries to $87(2)(6) and she never complained of any injuries to Lt. Trabulsy. §37(2)(b) screamed and kicked the window of the patrol car. Lt. Trabulsy did not see PO Carr at the incident location at all and he did not see him stomp on s foot or hit her face against the top of the patrol car. Lt. Trabulsy did not see which officer placed § 87(2)(b) inside of the patrol car and he did not recall which officers or how many were with her inside of the patrol car when he arrived. Lt. Trabulsy did not use any discourteous language towards $37(2)(0) and he did not hear any officer state, "I'll break your fucking arm," or call § 87(2)(b) a bitch at any time, or say, "You looked fucked up." Lt. Trabulsy did not see § 87(2)(b) again after she was removed from 700 South Avenue. Subject Officer: SGT. DMITRY BRUSHNIVSKY On August 16, 2013, Sgt. Brushnivsky was assigned as the desk officer inside of the 121st Precinct stationhouse. He worked in uniform from 2:50 p.m. to 11:47 p.m. § 87(4-b), § 87(2)(g) CCRB Statement On May 8, 2014, Sgt. He heard a call over the radio from PO Castillo, who requested assistance at 700 South Avenue in Staten Island. Sgt. Brushnivsky left the stationhouse with PO Carr and went immediately to the incident location. He did not state which officer remained at the desk.

Approximately two additional officers, one of whom was PO Castillo, were present when Sgt. Brushnivsky arrived. Sgt. Brushnivsky did not recall the second officer. § 37(2)(b) present; however, Sgt. Brushnivsky did not recall her positioning or whether she was handcuffed.

Memo Book

On August 16, 2013, at approximately 11 p.m., PO Alicea assisted PO Castillo with one arrest (Encl. 22A-22C).

CCRB Statement

On June 16, 2014, PO Alicea was interviewed at the CCRB. His testimony was generally consistent with that of the other officers and is summarized below (Encl. 23A-23E).

On August 16, 2013, PO Alicea was assigned to an accident location to direct traffic. PO Castillo was also present directing traffic at the intersection near 700 South Avenue in Staten Island. PO Castillo was nearly hit by a vehicle when the driver disobeyed PO Castillo's order to stop the car. The car drove into the gas station and stopped, and PO Castillo followed the car on foot. PO Alicea did not follow PO Castillo into the gas station, but continued to direct traffic and periodically watch what was occurring at the gas station and the driver, $87(2)(6)

PO Castillo appeared to struggle with $37(2)(b) who moved her arms around and refused to be handcuffed. provided a very general description of the officer that threatened her with the use of force while she was being placed under arrest. During her photo array appointment, identified PO Haggerty as the officer that spoke rudely to her and threatened her with the use of force at 700 South Avenue. While PO Haggerty did not recall this incident, it was determined through his partner PO Fernsmith that the officers arrived at the incident location after was placed under arrest. S87(2)(b) s physical description of the officer most closely resembles the pedigree information of PO Alicea. Therefore Allegations B and C are being pled against PO Alicea.  S87(2)(b) also provided a very general description of the officer that pushed her into the patrol car and searched her vehicle. During her photo array appointment, S87(2)(b) was unable to identify any of the officers that may have been involved in this allegation. Therefore Allegations E and F are being pled against an officer from the 121 st Precinct.
Investigative Findings and Recommendations Allegation A: Force- At 700 South Avenue in Staten Island, PO Johnny Castillo used physical force against  8 87(2)(b)  It is undisputed that $ 87(2)(b) was taken to the ground by PO Castillo. PO Castillo then allegedly held $87(2)(b) down by placing his knee in the upper part of her back and compressed her chest making it difficult for her to breathe for more than ten minutes. PO Castillo stated that §87(2)(b) pulled away while he had one wrist handcuffed and took her to the ground in order to gain an advantage and get her fully in handcuffs. PO Castillo placed his hand on $87(2)(b) s lower back for approximately 10 seconds, but he denied kneeling on her back and restricting her breathing in any manner for 10 minutes. PO Alicea stated that PO Castillo appeared to struggle with $87(2)(b) who moved her arms around and refused to be handcuffed. PO Alicea walked over to assist PO Castillo and did so by holding $87(2)(b) hands. PO Alicea did not recall how $87(2)(b) was taken down to the ground. All of the other officers interviewed in regards to the case did not observe any physical force used against also stated that §87(2)(b) resisted arrest, and also noted that he and § had gone out for drinks right before the incident with the police occurred.
On § 87(2)(b) reported to medical personnel at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn that she was assaulted by the police. She was diagnosed with a concussion without loss of consciousness, contusion to her right 3rd toe with fracture, contusion to her right 4th toe with fracture, acute cervical strain, left hip contusion, right hip contusion and acute back pain.
Patrol Guide Procedure 203-11(Encl. 1A-1B) explicitly states that all uniformed members of the service are responsible and accountable for the proper use of force under the appropriate circumstances. Only that amount of force necessary to overcome resistance will be used to affect an arrest.

According to NYPD v. Briscoe, OATH Index No. 1328/00 (Sept. 29, 2000) (Encl. 1C-1AA), an implied threat represents a gratuitous comment which serves no purpose other than to intimidate. This
