Case Summary

On April 8, 2019, Sgt. Ali Javed filed the following complaint with the Internal Affairs Bureau on behalf of ($87(2)(b) generating original IAB log #2019-14458. The CCRB received the complaint on April 18, 2019.
On April 7, 2019, at approximately 11:31 p.m., §87(2)(b) was visiting his girlfriend, at her apartment located at §87(2)(b) in Manhattan.
While alone inside the apartment, he heard officers knocking on the door and ordering him to open it. PO Alvin Pizarro, assigned to the 30 th Precinct during this incident, kicked in the cardboard surrounding the air conditioner in the kitchen window and shined a flashlight into the apartment (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority; § 87(2)(9)). PO Pizarro pointed his taser into the apartment and stated, "I'm going to tase this motherfucker" (Allegations B and C: Discourtesy and Abuse of Authority; $87(2)(9) . $87(2)(b) then opened the door, where he was grabbed by Det. Jean Hunt and Sgt. Corey Martinez from ESU and taken to the ground, resulting in a laceration to his head (Allegations D and E: Force; Se7(2)(9)). While was on the ground, officers allegedly recorded him on their cellphones (Allegation F: Abuse of Authority; $87(2)(9) . $87(2)(b) was removed to $87(2)(b) in Manhattan for treatment.
Body-worn camera (BWC) footage was obtained from PO Pizarro, Sgt. Robin Taveras, PO Andrew Chu, Po Robert Davila, PO Yudelka Espinal, PO Avery Jennings, PO Alvin Joseph, PO Johanna Rosariohurtado, and PO Karyn Giordano [BR01 through BR17, respectively].

removed his taser. He stated that he was concerned that § 87(2)(b) would try to assault him, and that he pointed his taser into the hallway. $87(2)(6) did not react to the taser. At no point did he move closer to PO Pizarro and remained pacing in the hallway. He and PO Pizarro did not speak to each other. The Event did not mention § 87(2)(b) possessing any weapons and PO Pizarro did not testify to observing any [BR19]. PO Pizarro did not recall if he specifically told that he would taser him but did tell him that someone would come into the apartment and take him. An ESU officer eventually told him to move away from the window, as they were about to enter [BR20].
PO Pizarro's BWC captured the officers with $87(2)(b) after first arriving on scene. At 00:30 minutes, $87(2)(b) informed the officers that the apartment is hers and consented to officers going to her apartment to check if $87(2)(b) was still there [BR01]. $87(2)(b) refused to provide a statement the investigation [BR21]. PO Pizarro's other BWC footage showed that, at 3:57 minutes, PO Pizarro communicated over the phone with PO Chu that $87(2)(b) is in the kitchen near a "bunch of knives" and that he did not want to be "fucking stabbed" and if "comes through, I'm gonna fucking tase him." His taser is pointed through the window.
At 6:07 minutes, PO Pizarro tells §87(2)(b) with his taser still pointed, that the officers are going to break down the door in two minutes and that he will tase him, and to open the door. It did not capture him breaking down the cardboard around the air conditioner or entering through the window [BR02]. After viewing the BWC footage, PO Pizarro acknowledged telling that he would tase him, but reiterated that it was due to a safety concern [BR19].
People v Gonzalez, 39 N.Y. 2d 122 (1976) ruled that voluntary consent is an exception to the warrant requirement for entry [BR22].

People v McBride, 14 N.Y. 3d 440 (2010) ruled that police may proceed without a warrant to effectuate an arrest within a home if exigent circumstances exist to justify a warrantless entry. Exigent circumstances include the gravity or violent nature of the offense which the suspect is to be charged, a clear showing of probable cause to believe that the suspect committed the crime, and strong reason to believe that the suspect is in the premises being entered [BR23].

According to Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09, officers must interact with members of the public in a professional manner [BR24]. In DCT-DAO Case #2017-17276, it was ruled by the Honorable Paul M. Gamble, the Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Trials, that language which would ordinarily be inappropriate in dealing with civilians may be excused in the case of a violent confrontation [BR25].

According to patrol Guide Procedure 221-08, a conducted electrical weapon (CEW) should only be used against persons who are actively resisting, exhibiting active aggression, or to prevent individuals from physically injuring themselves or other person(s) present. Active resisting is defined as physically evasive movements to defeat an officer's attempt at control or verbally signaling an intention to avoid being taken into custody. Active aggression is a threat or overt act of assault, coupled with the present ability to carry out the threat or assault [BR24].

According to Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01, force may be used when it is reasonable to place a person in custody or to prevent escape from custody [BR31]. 887(2)(9)
Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: Officers took recordings of $37(2)(b) While $37(2)(b) alleged that officers recorded him while he was on the ground, BWC footage from the incident showed that this did not occur. $37(2)(b) testified that after being taken to the ground, officers recorded him on the floor on their cellphones for approximately five minutes. $37(2)(b) was unable to describe the officers doing so, as the blood from his laceration was in his eyes. The officers stopped recording once he was lifted from the ground [BR18]. Both Det. Hunt and Sgt. Martinez testified that they did not take cellphone footage of nor did they see any other officer do so [BR27 and BR28, respectively]. BWC footage from, Sgt. Taveras, PO Chu, and PO Davila, which all captured the takedown and the remainder of the incident showed that at no point are the officers seen recording savents while he is on the ground [BR05, BR07, BR09, and BR11, respectively].
Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories
 This is the first CCRB complaint that $87(2)(b) has been party to [BR32]. Det. Hunt has been a member of service for 15 years and has been a subject in four CCRB cases and six allegations, none of which have been substantiated. $87(2)(g)
• Sgt. Martinez has been a member of service for 15 years and has been a subject in three CCRB cases and seven allegations, none of which have been substantiated.
• PO Pizarro has been a member of service for 13 years and has been a subject in four CCRB cases and eight allegations, none of which have been substantiated. §87(2)(9)
Mediation, Civil and Criminal Histories
 This complaint was unsuitable for mediation, due to $87(2)(b) s arrest. As of January 28, 2020, $87(2)(b) has not filed a Notice of Claim for this incident [BR33].
