Case Summary

On June 12, 2020, $87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB online.
On May 31, 2020, at approximately 9:33 p.m., $87(2)(b) took part in a Black Lives Matter protest which began in Brooklyn and traveled into Manhattan. §87(2)(b) who was on her bicycle during this incident, traveled to the intersection of Spring Street and Greene Street in Manhattan after crossing over the Manhattan Bridge. As $87(2)(b) straddled her bicycle in the middle of the intersection, two unidentified officers approached her and ordered her to move.
One of the officers put his baton in the rear spokes of $87(2)(b) so bike. An officer allegedly pushed $87(2)(b) on her upper back and shoulder area, causing her to fall off her bike (Allegation A: Force, $57(2)(9) s bicycle also fell over, which resulted in a flat tire and askew handlebars (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, $87(2)(g) Because $87(2)(b) could not locate her bicycle while she was on the ground, she continued to ask where her bike was. An officer, who was inside an unmarked vehicle, allegedly stated, "Fuck your bike" (Allegation C: Discourtesy, $87(2)(9)
The investigation obtained cell phone video footage, which was taken immediately after this incident by the unidentified friend of a witness known only as $87(2)(b) surveillance footage from a surrounding retail store; and TARU footage from the NYPD. However, none of these videos capture the incident. The investigation received negative results for body-worn camera (BWC) footage. was neither arrested nor summonsed during this incident.
Findings and Recommendations Allegation (A) Force: An officer used physical force against [587(2)(6)]
Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: An officer damaged $87(2)(b) s property.
Allegation (C) Discourtesy: An officer spoke discourteously to $87(2)(b) Anegation (C) Discourtesy. An officer spoke discourted by to obtained (see IAs for contact attempts).

Surveillance video footage $87(2)(b) in Manhattan, was obtained, but did not capture this incident. Other retail locations, $87(2)(b) were contacted, but representatives from both stores confirmed that there are no external cameras at the locations. Contact attempts were also made to $87(2)(b) another nearby retail store, but each time an automated message stated that the store was currently closed.

BWC:

The investigation received negative BWC results from the NYPD (BR 04). The search was conducted for officers assigned to the 1st Precinct, Emergency Services Unit (ESU), Strategic Response Group (SRG), Critical Response Command (CRC), City-Wide Traffic, and Narcotics, on the date of the incident between the hours of 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. A second request was also submitted after potential officers were identified (see below for testimonies), but this request was also returned as negative (BR 16).

NYPD Documents Reviewed:

The investigation received negative results for a TRI prepared for $87(2)(b) (BR 05). TARU footage from the NYPD was received, but did not capture this incident (BR 06-08).

The investigation requested the Detail Roster prepared for this protest and received over 50 rosters from Patrol Borough Manhattan South (BR 09). Several of the rosters did not list the area to which the officers were assigned or did not list the time of the assignment.

Out of all the rosters received, Police Officer Maris Garcia of Midtown North Precinct was the only officer with an assignment at Spring Street and Greene Street in Manhattan, the incident location provided by Ser(2)(6) Sergeant Timothy White, also of Midtown North Precinct, was listed as the supervisor. The Detail Roster, however, did not list the date or time of PO Garcia's assignment at Spring Street and Greene Street.

Concurrent Investigations:

No concurrent investigations were pursued related to this complaint.

Officers Interviewed:

In her interview, PO Garcia (BR 10) testified that she was working with Sergeant Alexander Chateau, also of Midtown North Precinct, and other officers whom she did not recall. PO Garcia did not have a recollection of specifically being assigned to Spring Street and Greene Street in Manhattan, though knew she was assigned to a footpost throughout the evening. PO Garcia had no recollection of observing the incident involving [$87(2)(6)] or otherwise learning about it.
