Case Summary

On March 28, 2019, $87(2)(6) filed this complaint over the phone with IAB. It was received by the CCRB on April 3, 2019 under log #19-12370.

On March 28, 2019 at approximately 2:30AM, $87(2)(b) was walking near $87(2)(b) in Brooklyn when Sergeant Michael Hansson, Police Officer Billy Dill, and Police Officer Tyler Angelo stopped him (Allegations A, B, C- Abuse of Authority: $87(2)(9) drew his gun when approaching §87(2)(b) (Allegation D- Abuse of Authority: PO Dill and Sgt. Hansson questioned [887(2)(b)] (Allegations E and F- Abuse of Authority: $87(2)(9) PO Dill frisked $87(2)(6) (Allegation G- Abuse of Authority: Sgt. Hansson and PO Angelo frisked 887(2)(b) (Allegations H and I- Abuse of Authority: $87(2)(9) PO Dill threatened to arrest $87(2)(6) (Allegation J- Abuse of Authority: Sgt. Hansson, PO Dill, and PO Angelo failed to provide 887(2)(b) with business cards (Allegations K, L, M- Abuse of Authority: $87(2)(9) $87(2)(9) $87(4-b) was not arrested or summonsed as a result of this incident.

There is no video footage capturing this incident. All of the officers were equipped with body-worn cameras at the time of the incident but did not generate BWC footage.

Findings and Recommendations

to speak to him, although it is disputed what was said at the time.

Sgt. Hansson stated that either PO Dill or PO Angelo called out from the car, identifying themselves as police officers and said something to the effect of "Where you going, pal?" [37.2] [37.

PO Angelo stated that he was the only officer to speak with $\frac{8}{37(2)(6)}$ while the officers were inside the vehicle. PO Angelo stated that while walking $\frac{8}{37(2)(6)}$ bladed his body away from the officers, as if he were attempting to conceal something. PO Angelo told $\frac{8}{37(2)(6)}$ to "stop" twice but $\frac{8}{37(2)(6)}$ continued walking following PO Angelo's second attempt to verbally command him to stop, the officers got out of the vehicle. $\frac{8}{37(2)(6)}$ continued walking and went behind a gate that said, "Private property- no trespassing." Behind the gate, there was a small path leading to a couple of stairs leading up to a front door of a residential building. The officers also went behind the gate.

PO Dill stated that he spoke to $57(2)(0) from the car and said saying something to the effect of, "Hi, how are you doing? I'm Officer Dill." $67(2)(0) did not respond but continued walking. Once noticing the officers, $67(2)(0) momentarily changed directions for a "few steps" and then double backed so he was going the same way he was going originally. It seemed like $67(2)(0) was "confused" as to where he was going. PO Dill found this "double backing" suspicious based on his years of training as a police officer. It appeared that $67(2)(0) could have been concealing something or changing his mind on committing a crime because he saw the police.

The Stop Report prepared by PO Angelo, and approved by Sgt. Hansson, noted that $37(2)(b) was stopped because PO Angelo suspected he was committing burglary and that the factors that led to the stop were that $37(2)(b) was casing a location and ignored orders to stop for police (Board Review 05).

A Weather Underground search revealed that the temperature at approximately 1:51AM on March 28, 2019, the temperature in New York City was 37 degrees Fahrenheit (Board Review 06).

A request for robbery pattern worksheets generated in the vicinity of the 75th Precinct for the month of March 2019 has been requested and the results of this request will be added to the case file upon receipt (Board Review 07).

A stop requires reasonable suspicion that the individual being stopped has committed, is committing, or is about to commit a crime. People v. DeBour, 40 N.Y.2d (Board Review 08).

An individual with a weighted down jacket making a motion to blade his body and changing directions upon observing police in a high-crime location may provide officers with founded suspicion to question, but does not give rise to the reasonable suspicion needed to justify a stop and frisk. People v. Gerard, 94 A.D.3d 592 (Board Review 09).

Behavior that is susceptible to an innocuous interpretation, even in a high crime area, is not sufficient to establish reasonable suspicion. People v. Hampton 200 A.D.2d 466 (Board Review 10).

Patrol Guide Procedure 212-11 states that in Level 1 and Level 2 encounters, the person may refuse to answer questions and/or walk or even run away. Refusal to answer questions and/or walking or running away does not escalate the encounter. At this level, the officer may not create a situation (either by words or actions) where a reasonable person would not feel free to leave (Board Review 11).

Allegation F-Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Michael Hansson questioned § 37(2)(b) stated that after the officers grabbed his arms, officers asked him multiple questions without giving him a chance to respond. The questions consisted of "What are you doing here? Do you live here? What do you got in your pockets? You got a gun on you?" $87(2)(b) could not attribute any of the questions to any specific officer but stated that PO Angelo was quiet. $87(2)(b) told the officers that he lived in the building.

The only question that Sgt. Hansson recalled being posed to $\frac{8.97(2)(5)}{2.000}$ was either PO Dill or PO Angelo asking him from the car where he was going. Neither PO Angelo nor PO Dill recalled asking $\frac{8.97(2)(5)}{2.000}$ any questions. Sgt. Hansson, PO Angelo, and PO Dill stated in their CCRB interviews that they did not recall asking $\frac{8.97(2)(5)}{2.000}$ if he had a gun and that they did not recall any officer asking that question. PO Dill noted that this would have been a "normal" question to ask but he did not recall it being asked on that specific night.

All of the officers testified to having suspected that $87(2)(b) was may have been armed. PO Angelo believed this because of the quick manner in which $87(2)(b) was moving, the fact that he ignored his initial commands to stop, and because $87(2)(b) refused to take his hands out of his pockets. PO Dill believed this because he had his hands in his pockets by his waistband and it "looked like he was holding onto something." PO Dill was asked how it looked like $87(2)(b) was holding on to something. PO Dill responded that he could not tell if $87(2)(b) was holding on to something. There was a bulge in the pockets but PO Dill could not tell if the bulge was caused by $87(2)(b) s hands alone or if there was something in his pockets. Sgt Hansonn testified that he believed $7(2)(b) "may" have had a weapon on his person because of the way he bladed his body when officers initially tried to speak to him and because of the mask, which indicated to Sgt. Hansson that $87(2)(b) may be committing or about to commit a burglary. Sgt. Hansson also noted that "you could also say that he absolutely could have had a weapon based on the way he wouldn't take his hands out of his pockets, that he was concealing his identity, and refusing to stop."

An officer requires an objective, credible reason to approach an individual and request general information from them. An officer requires a founded suspicion that criminality is afoot in order to ask an individual pointed or accusatory questions. People v. Hollman 79 N.Y.2d 181 (Board Review 12).

Allegation	on G- Abuse of Authority: Police Off	icer Billy Dill frisked §87(2)(b)
It is undis	sputed that §87(2)(b) was frisked.
§ 87(2)(b)	stated that after the officers asked qu	nestions, they patted him down his chest, waist, a	nd thigh area. The officers did not pat down his lower legs or his arms at any point. It was around this time when $\frac{8}{5}(2)(6)$ came outside and asked what was going on. $\frac{8}{5}(2)(6)$ stated that he was only asked to remove his hands from his pocket following the conclusion of the frisk.

As noted in the discussion of Allegations E and F, the officers all testified as to suspecting that $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ was armed. PO Dill stated that there was a bulge in the pockets but PO Dill could not tell if the bulge was caused by $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ s hands alone or if there was something in his pockets. PO Dill stated that prior to frisking $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ he asked $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ to remove his hands from his pockets, and $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ complied. PO Dill no longer observed any bulges in the pockets or on $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ s waistband. Dill conducted a frisk of $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ by feeling around his waistband and his jacket pockets. PO Dill conducted this frisk because he was concerned that $\frac{87(2)(b)}{87(2)(b)}$ had a weapon. PO Dill did not feel anything during this frisk.

An individual with a weighted down jacket making a motion to blade his body and changing directions upon observing police in a high-crime location may provide officers with founded suspicion to question but does not give rise to the reasonable suspicion needed to justify a stop and frisk. People v. Gerard, 94 A.D.3d 592 (Board Review 08).

An individual may frisk an individual when he reasonably suspects that he or she is in danger of physical danger by virtue of the individual being armed. People v. Debour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (Board Review 07).

When an officer's observation of a bulge on a pedestrian's person is "readily susceptible of an innocent as well as a guilty explanation", those observations alone cannot justify a frisk. People v. Stevenson, 7 A.D.3d 820 (Board Review 13).

Allegation H- Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Michael Hansson frisked Allegation I- Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Tyler Angelo frisked  887(2)(b)  alleged that all of the officers participated in frisking him.
alleged that all of the officers participated in frisking him.
stated that she observed PO Dill patting [887(2)(b)] s chest and back but did not observe any other officer patting $87(2)(b) s body.
PO Angelo and Sgt. Hansson affirmed that $87(2)(b) was frisked but neither officer recalled who conducted the frisk. Both officers denied frisking §87(2)(b) themselves.

Allegation J- Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Billy Dill threatened to arrest 887(2)(b) alleged that after $87(2)(b) came outside and informed the officers that he lived at the location, PO Dill asked him for his name and identification. PO Dill asked $87(2)(b) for his ID; said, "No, for what?" PO Dill did not provide a reason but stated, "If you don't give me your name, I'm going to take you down to the precinct." $87(2)(b) took this to mean that the officer would arrest him. §87(2)(b) then provided his first and last name and said, "Take it or leave it."
it.
stated that she heard PO Dill and PO Angelo ask $87(2)(b) for his name. $87(2)(b) asked the officers why they wanted his name and PO Dill responded that $87(2)(b) had to give the officers his name because they had asked where he was going and what his name was. $87(2)(b) with a business card.  It is undisputed that the officers, who were working in plainclothes, did not provide $87(2)(b) with business cards after they conducted a stop.

stated that PO Dill showed Sgt. Hansson something on his phone after looking up his name and then the officers left. § 87(2)(b) did not receive any paperwork from this incident. § 87(2)(b) did not testify that the officers provided him with any identifying information.
Sgt. Hansson stated that he told $87(2)(b) his name and that he worked out of the 75 th Precinct but that he did not give $87(2)(b) a business card. Sgt. Hansson did not provide $87(2)(b) with a card because he did not have an opportunity to do so. Sgt. Hansson's business cards were in the car and he did not have time to go back and get his cards prior to $87(2)(b) walking back into the building.
PO Angelo stated that he did not provide $87(2)(b) with a business card. PO Angelo stated that he did not believe that he would be required to issue $87(2)(b) a business card because it "was such a brief encounter" and because $87(2)(b) shook their hands and stated that he fully understood the reason for the stop. There was "no confusion" and therefore "no reason" to issue $87(2)(b) a business card.
PO Dill stated that he did not provide stated with a business card at the conclusion of their interaction. PO Dill provided stated with his name and shield number. PO Dill did not have any business cards on his person at the time. PO Dill hands the business cards out "often" so he believes he may have ran out.
The UF 250 Stop Report regarding this interaction, which was prepared by PO Angelo and approved by Sgt. Hansson, notes that business cards were not offered to $87(2)(5) because he was uncooperative.
Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 states that officers must offer business cards when they conduct law enforcement activities such as stops where an officer has an individualized reasonable suspicion that the person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit a crime, and where a reasonable person would not feel free to end the encounter, and where as frisk has been conducted (Board Review 15). An officer does not have to offer a business card in cases where a summons is issued or an arrest is made.
