	The unmarked police van parked in the vicinity of East 182 nd Street and Southern Boulevard

The unmarked police van parked in the vicinity of East 182nd Street and Southern Boulevard and $87(2)(b) was taken out of the van. Det. Brown, PO Boylan, and Det. Gargano allegedly strip-searched $87(2)(b) outside of the unmarked police van (Allegations L, M, and N). Det. Brown also escorted $87(2)(b) out of the van and asked him if $87(2)(b) had passed him any drugs. $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) were placed back inside the unmarked police van and transported to the 48th Precinct stationhouse. Upon arriving at the 48th Precinct stationhouse, the investigation determined that Sgt. Winrow, Det. Gargano, Det. Brown, Det. O'Connell, and PO Boylan escorted $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) inside the stationhouse. Det. Brown and an unidentified officer in plainclothes escorted $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) into separate bathrooms and allegedly strip-searched them (Allegations O and P).

After being allegedly strip-searched, $87(2)(b) was released from the 48th Precinct stationhouse without being fingerprinted or photographed. He was not summonsed and his arrest was voided and sealed that same day. As such, Sgt. Winrow detained $87(2)(b) (Allegation Q). $87(2)(b) s arrest was processed and he was released from police custody

- The Narcotics Borough Bronx 48th Module Roll Call shows that Sgt. Winrow, Det. O'Connell, Det. Gargano, Det. Brown, and PO Boylan were on duty at the time of the incident (encl. 14A).
- The Narcotics Borough Bronx Tactical Plan shows that Sgt. Winrow, Det. Gargano, and Det. Brown were partnered together in an unmarked blue Dodge. Det. O'Connell and PO Boylan were partnered together in the unmarked prisoner van (encl.15A).
- There were no events summaries generated for this incident (encl. 13A-13C).
- The 48th Precinct's Command Log lists ($\frac{3}{2}(2)(0)\) and ($\frac{3}{2}(2)(0)\) s arrest entries at 8:20 p.m., with Det. Gargano as their arresting officer and Sgt. Winrow as the supervisor verifying the arrests. The Command Log does not document that strip-searches were conducted on ($\frac{3}{2}(2)(0)\) and ($\frac{3}{2}(2)(0)\) (encl. 17A).
- Boylan. Det. Gargano was listed as the arresting officer and Sgt. Winrow was listed as the approving supervisor. Ser(2)(b) as report notes that he was observed exchanging small objects with apprehended other, while Ser(2)(b) as report notes that he was found to be in possession of a quantity of a controlled substance. Both arrest reports do not indicate that strip-searches were conducted (encl. 8E-8J).
- Det. Gargano generated $87(2)(6) s property voucher at the 48th Precinct, which listed a glass pipe with crack cocaine residue and two zip lock bags containing crack cocaine residue (encl. 8K-8L).

amongst all of the white male officers in plainclothes, there was one Hispanic male officer they described as being in his late 20s or early 30s, between 5'10" to 6'1" tall, and 200 pounds. Det. Brown is a Black male, was $\frac{357(2)(5)}{2}$ old at the time of the incident, is 6'2" tall, 220 pounds, and has black hair and brown eyes (encl. 10A). The investigation determined that Det. Brown was the only Black male officer present during the identified via the investigation as Det. Brown, was one of the two officers who strip-searched the both of them at the stationhouse. Set 2016 positively identified Det. Brown as one of the officers who strip-searched him at the stationhouse, but he was unable to identify the second officer. Set 2016 was unable to identify any of the officers during his photo viewing as having strip-searched him at the stationhouse. Set 2016 .

As discussed previously, it is undisputed that Sgt. Winrow was present at the first incident location and he was the sole supervisor at the incident location and inside the 48 th Precinct stationhouse. § 87(2)(9) pulled up alongside him and 887(2)(6) and an unknown number of plainclothes officers jumped out of the police van and handcuffed them. In his sworn CCRB statement (encl. 6C-6D), stated that while he was sweeping in front of a grocery store located on the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue, $87(2)(b) approached him and received a phone call. The unidentified caller would not identify himself after multiple requests from §87(2)(b) to do so, which led $87(2)(b) to tell $87(2)(b) to hang up the phone if he did not know who he was speaking to. After he ended the phone call, § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) that the caller was asking him about drugs. Immediately thereafter, an unmarked police van parked in front of §87(2)(b) and and three plainclothes officers exited the van. An unidentified officer then approached $87(2)(b) and asked him where the drugs were. Simultaneously, Sgt. Winrow approached 887(2)(6) and asked him where the drugs were.

s unverified phone statement (encl. 7A) corroborated that he was a passenger in s car, but that once 887(2)(b) parked his car on the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue, §87(2)(b) went inside the corner grocery store while §87(2)(b) remained in his car.
When street the grocery store, he observed four to six plainclothes officers physically interacting with $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) did not indicate that he personally interacted with $87(2)(b) on the incident date or that $87(2)(b) received phone calls from an unidentified individual regarding drugs.
None of the officers who were interviewed by the CCRB had independent recollections of this incident and their CCRB statements were a reiteration of their memo book entries from the incident date. Sgt. Winrow's memo book notes that two individuals were under arrest at East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue for $87(2)(5)
, but Sgt. Winrow did not note his observations before authorizing these arrests. Det. Gargano was $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) arresting officer, but his memo book also does not note any observations made prior to the arrests.

§ 87(2)(g)
Allegation F – Abuse of Authority: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, an officer searched the car in which was an occupant.  887(2)(b) alleged that two officers in plainclothes searched his parked car. He stated that the officers searched every compartment inside his car including the glove compartment, the trunk, and the officers removed a door panel to search inside. Neither $87(2)(b) nor $87(2)(b) corroborated the alleged vehicle search even though they were standing in close proximity to $87(2)(c) and the officers.
described the two officers who searched his car as both being white males in their mid to late 30s, between 5'9" to 6 foot tall, weigh between 200 to 220 pounds, were both dressed in plainclothes, and one of the officers had short blonde hair. All of the officers that the investigation determined were present at the first incident location have nearly identical pedigrees to the pedigree description provided of the two officers who searched his car. During his photo array, $87(2)(b) only identified Sgt. Winrow as the officer who searched his vehicle and did not identify the second officer $87(2)(g)
Allegation G – Abuse of Authority: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, Sgt. Brian Winrow searched the car in which street and Prospect Avenue was an occupant.  As discussed previously, street and Prospect Avenue was an occupant.  I dentified Sgt. Winrow in his photo viewing as being the officer who searched his car, street and Prospect Avenue was an occupant.  Sgt. Winrow had no recollection of the incident.

Allegation H – Abuse of Authority: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, Sgt. Brian Winrow strip-searched § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) Allegation I – Abuse of Authority: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, Det. Jodi Brown strip-searched §87(2)(b) alleged that after officers had searched his car, either Det. Brown or Sgt. Winrow had told him not to move so that they could search him for drugs. $87(2)(b) stated that either Det.
Brown or Sgt. Winrow pulled his waistband away from his body and touched his genitals over his underwear. § 87(2)(6) did not indicate that his underwear was exposed to anyone other than Sgt.
Winrow and Det. Brown. During $87(2)(b) s photo viewing, he identified both Sgt. Winrow and Det. Brown as the officers who strip-searched him at the first location and did not indicate it was only one of the identified officers who strip-searched him.
alleged that after Sgt. Winrow had frisked and searched his pant pockets, Sgt. Winrow pulled his waistband away from his body and looked inside his pants. $87(2)(b) also alleged that he observed a bald, white male officer in his 30s, who was 5'6" tall and dressed in plainclothes, strip-search $87(2)(b) at the same time he was strip-searched by Sgt. Winrow. During his photo viewing, $87(2)(b) at the first incident location. Additionally, $87(2)(b) identified Sgt. Winrow as having been present at the first incident location, but specified that Sgt. Winrow was only a witness officer at the scene.
Sgt. Winrow did not recall strip-searching any individuals on the incident date, Det. Brown could not recall any details about the incident date, and Det. Gargano stated that he did not observe any officers strip-search §87(2)(b) or §87(2)(b) at the first incident location. Both arrest reports generated for §87(2)(b) and §87(2)(b) do not indicate that strip-searches were conducted.
Allegation J – Discourtesy: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, an officer spoke rudely to $87(2)(b)

Allegation K – Abuse of Authority: On the corner of East 183 rd Street and Prospect Avenue in the Bronx, an officer interfered with the recording of a police encounter.
According to $87(2)(b) the officers took no action against $87(2)(b) and that $87(2)(b) only witnessed the incident. When the undersigned called $87(2)(b) on April 3, 2015 to obtain his witness statement, $87(2)(b) alleged that he approached an unidentified, white male officer in plainclothes and asked if he could take $87(2)(b) s car in order to leave. The unidentified officer in plainclothes allegedly told $87(2)(b) s that the fuck up. You're not going to take the fucking car." When $87(2)(b) attempted to video record what was happening with his cell phone, the unidentified officer allegedly told $87(2)(b) "Put that shit away. Put the fucking phone away." At the conclusion of his phone statement, $87(2)(b) agreed to provide a sworn statement and participate in a photo viewing if they were both conducted at the same time so he would not have to appear at the CCRB twice. The undersigned informed $87(2)(b) that once officer photographs were received, the undersigned would contact him to schedule an interview.
Between April 27, 2015 and May 14, 2015, $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ was contacted four times via telephone and two letters were mailed via the United States Postal Service, all of which were not returned. The undersigned left voicemails for $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ informing him that the CCRB would not be able to investigation his allegations if he did not provide a sworn statement, but $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ has not contacted the undersigned back as of the date of this report. On July 2, 2015, a New York City and New York State Department of Correction Inmate Look-Up search revealed that $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ was not incarcerated during the undersigned's contact attempts and he is not currently incarcerated.

Allegation L – Abuse of Authority: In the vicinity of East 182 nd Street and Southern  Boulevard in the Bronx, Det. Jodi Brown strip-searched  Allegation M – Abuse of Authority: In the vicinity of East 182 nd Street and Southern  Boulevard in the Bronx, PO Ryan Boylan strip-searched  After 87(2)(b) was placed inside the unmarked police van with 837(2)(b) they were driven to East 182 nd Street and Southern Boulevard. 337(2)(b) alleged that Det. Brown and an unidentified, white male officer in plainclothes who was in his mid-30s, was 6 foot tall, weighed 220 pounds, and had blonde hair, took him out of the police van and pulled his pants down to his knees exposing his underwear. Det. Brown pulled the front of 837(2)(b) s underwear band away from his body and looked at his genitals, while the unidentified, white male officer in plainclothes pulled the back of 837(2)(b) s underwear band and looked at his buttocks. No items were recovered and the officers placed 837(2)(b) back into the police van. During 837(2)(b) s photo viewing, he identified Det. Brown and PO Boylan as the officers who strip-searched him at the second incident location.
According to $87(2)(b) s sworn statement (encl. 6B-6D), while he was inside the police van at the second incident location, he observed an unidentified, white male officer in plainclothes, who he described as being in his 30s, was 5'6" tall, and bald, pull the waistband of $87(2)(b) s pants away from his body while Det. Brown used a flashlight to look at $87(2)(b) s buttocks. The officers then placed $87(2)(b) back into the police van. During $87(2)(b) s photo viewing, he identified Det. Brown and Det. Gargano as the officers he saw strip-search 887(2)(b) but 87(2)(b) did not recognize Det. Gargano during his photo viewing.

Allegation N – Abuse of Authority: In the vicinity of East 182 nd Street and Southern  Boulevard in the Bronx, Det. Guy Gargano strip-searched $87(2)(5)  As noted previously, $87(2)(5) identified Det. Gargano during his photo viewing as one of the two officers who had strip-searched $87(2)(5) at the second incident location. However, $87(2)(5) did not even recognize Det. Gargano during his photo viewing and was adamant that Det. Brown and PO Boylan were the officers who strip-searched him at the second incident location. $87(2)(5)
Allegation O – Abuse of Authority: Inside the 48 th Precinct stationhouse, an officer stripsearched $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}  \frac{87(2)(0)}{2}  \text{was escorted inside a bathroom by Det. Brown and an unidentified, white male officer in plainclothes who was in his mid-30s, was 6 foot tall, weighed 220 pounds, and had blonde hair. Inside the bathroom, the two officers told to take off all of his clothes. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}  \text{complied and no items were recovered. During his photo viewing, $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}  identified Det. Brown as the officer who strip-searched him inside the stationhouse, but did not identify the second officer.
During his sworn statement, $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ also alleged that Det. Brown and either Sgt. Winrow or the white male officer in plainclothes, who he described as being in his 30s, was 5'6" tall, and bald, had escorted him into a bathroom inside the stationhouse and directed him to take off all of his clothes. $\frac{87(2)(b)}{2}$ complied and no items were recovered. During his photo viewing, $\frac{8}{27(2)}$ did not identify any of the officers as having strip-searched him at the stationhouse.
None of the officers who provided sworn CCRB statements recalled any details regarding this incident besides what was written in their memo books. Additionally, the Command Log (encl. 17A) and generated arrest reports do not document the alleged strip-searches. [87(2)(9)]

Allegation P – Abuse of Authority: Inside the 48 th Precinct stationhouse, Det. Jodi Brown strip-searched § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)
§ 87(2)(g)
Det. Brown had strip-searched both of them inside the stationhouse. However, there is no NYPD documentation that indicates strip-searches were conducted on $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) and Det. Brown has no recollection of this incident. Det. Brown also stated that he did not recall interacting with ay individuals inside the 48 th Precinct stationhouse on the incident date.
Allegation Q – Abuse of Authority: At the 48th Precinct stationhouse, Sgt. Brian Winrow
According to statements provided by was released from the 48 th Precinct stationhouse after he was allegedly strip-searched. He was not summonsed or issued a Desk Appearance Ticket and his arrest was voided that same night. Even though 37(2)(b) s voided and sealed arrest report indicated that he was observed exchanging small objects with 37(2)(b) neither Det. Gargano who was the arresting officer of Sgt. Winrow who was the supervising officer, could articulate any observations they made of before they approached him.
