Case Summary

On May 8, 2018, $87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB by phone.

On May 8, 2018 at approximately 8:30 AM, at the 63rd Precinct stationhouse, PO Ronette Benjamin, Sgt. Peter Behan, and PO Jonathan Bourne spoke discourteously to §87(2)(5) (Allegations A, B, C: Discourtesy, §87(2)(9)

Video surveillance footage from the 63rd Precinct stationhouse was obtained but does not capture the allegation. The footage is located in IA 23, and is discussed below.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Discourtesy: Police Officer Ronette Benjamin spoke discourteously to

Allegation (B) Discourtesy: Sergeant Peter Behan spoke discourteously to $87(2)(5)

It is undisputed that at approximately 8:30 AM on May 8, 2018, $87(2)(5) and his on went to the 63rd Precinct stationhouse to complain about traffic summonses he received on the previous day. $87(2)(5)

Spoke with a number of officers, including PO

Jonathan Bourne, PO Ronette Benjamin, and Sgt. Peter Behan.

(Board Review 01) said that while he attempted to speak with an officer who

(Board Review 01) said that while he attempted to speak with an officer who had been on scene when he received his summonses, PO Ronette Benjamin interrupted him. PO Benjamin told [587(2)(6)] that officers were too busy to answer his questions, and [587(2)(6)] responded that she had not been at the scene, and would not know which officers were involved. PO Benjamin responded, "You're a fucking asshole. You're an ass." PO Benjamin then left the stationhouse through the front doors.

Another officer, Sgt. Peter Behan, approached $87(2)(b) from behind the desk area of the stationhouse and told him that he was being disrespectful. $87(2)(b) attempted to dispute this, and Sgt. Behan said, "Get the fuck out of here." $87(2)(b) said that while he was upset during this conversation, he was not shouting at or berating the officers involved. $87(2)(b) left the stationhouse to speak with PO Benjamin.

Surveillance footage from the lobby of the 63rd Precinct stationhouse (Board Review 02) is embedded below. The video shows the gated visitor area immediately inside the stationhouse's front doors. Although the video does not have audio, it depicts $\frac{87(2)(b)}{27(2)}$ speaking, in an evidently calm manner, with PO Sergio Martins. At the 1:13 mark, PO Benjamin speaks to $\frac{87(2)(b)}{27(2)}$ turns towards her. They continue to converse until the 1:30 mark, both in an evidently calm demeanor, until PO Benjamin walks out of the stationhouse. At the 1:54 mark, Sgt. Behan approaches the visitor area from the left side of the screen, and begins repeatedly pointing at and talking to $\frac{87(2)(b)}{27(2)(b)}$ gesticulates towards Sgt. Behan, and both men appear to raise their voices and become progressively more agitated, $\frac{87(2)(b)}{27(2)(b)}$ more so. They converse until the 2:40 mark, when $\frac{87(2)(b)}{27(2)(b)}$ exits the building. The video also captures the presence of Sgt. Niemeyer from the 2:20 mark onward.

CCRB Case # 201803568

PO Benjamin (Board Review 03) said that she did not know precisely why $87(2)(b) had come to the stationhouse, but recalled that he was agitated and raised his voice. She did not initially recall having any conversation with $87(2)(b) inside the stationhouse. After viewing the above footage, PO Benjamin acknowledged speaking with $87(2)(b) in the stationhouse.
She said that she was likely informing $87(2)(b) how to file a CCRB complaint, as the officer he was speaking with, PO Martins, was a new officer and may not have been familiar with the proper procedure. PO Benjamin added that she had been on a personal cell phone call while speaking with $87(2)(b)  It was possible, she said, that she had used profanity in the course of her phone call, but only to the extent that one might use profanity in casual conversation. She did not recall any specific statements that she might have made. She denied ever calling § 87(2)(b) an "ass" or a "fucking asshole" and denied directing any profanity toward him.
Sgt. Behan (Board Review 04) said that he determined that he needed to intervene in the situation when § 87(2)(b) began yelling at officers to such an extent that it became a disruption.
Sgt. Behan told $87(2)(b) that he would need to leave the stationhouse if he did not lower his voice. After $87(2)(b) refused to do so, Sgt. Behan instructed him to leave. Sgt. Behan denied telling $87(2)(b) to "Get the fuck out of here," denied using any profanity towards $87(2)(b) and denied hearing any other officer do so.
Sgt. Niemeyer (Board Review 05) provided testimony generally consistent with that of Sgt. Behan.
