Case Summary

Case Summary
On May 2, 2014, at approximately 8:30 a.m., $87(2)(b) and his daughter, $87(2)(b) were engaged in a dispute. In the course of the dispute, §87(2)(b) grabbed a kitchen knife and in the process of removing it from her grasp, $87(2)(b) cut $87(2)(b) s abdomen.
$87(2)(b) s cousin, $87(2)(b) called 911. $87(2)(b) $87(2)(b) s girlfriend, was also in the apartment. PO Ilya Kosilov and PO Felix Catano, both from the 44 th Precinct, responded to the apartment. §87(2)(b) met PO Kosilov and PO Catano in the hallway of the building and showed them the injury. As PO Catano and PO Kosilov approached $87(2)(b) apartment, the door opened and §87(2)(b) s pit bull exited the apartment and walked toward the officers. PO Kosilov and PO Catano fired two rounds each at the dog, striking it twice (Allegation A and Allegation B). §87(2)(b) retreated into the apartment and soon after his dog, who had survived the shooting, followed him. $87(2)(b) took out the child protection bars on the window and jumped out. He hurt his ankle and knee. He was apprehended by PO Cornell Enoch, from Patrol Borough Bronx, immediately upon landing on the ground. §87(2)(b) allegedly requested medical treatment from PO Enoch for his leg, which he never received (Allegation C). $87(2)(b) was charged with $87(2)(b) did not seek medical treatment after he left police custody.

(encl. D1-6) stated that she observed $87(2)(6) s dog leave the apartment when $87(2)(6) opened the door. She did not hear anyone say anything and she heard five shots fired. S87(2)(b) stated that the pit bull was excited and that it ran out of the apartment toward PO Kosilov and PO Catano (encl. F1). S87(2)(b) declined to provide an in-person interview. S87(2)(b) was unavailable to provide a statement to the CCRB (encl. F2). PO Catano (encl. G1-7) and PO Kosilov (encl. H1-4) both stated that the pit bull came out of the apartment suddenly. PO Catano and PO Kosilov attempted to back away from the pit bull, but could not as the hallway was so narrow. The pit bull charged at PO Catano, PO Kosilov, and who was standing behind the officers. PO Kosilov saw that the pit bull's teeth were barred and PO Catano observed the pit bull was growling. They did not hear any commands from any of the civilians toward the dog. PO Kosilov and PO Catano both stated that they fired shots at the dog because they were afraid for their safety. S87(2)(9) Patrol Guide Procedure 203-12 (encl. A1-2) Officers are permitted to shoot at an animal only when it is necessary to protect themselves or another person from physical injury and when there is no other reasonable means to eliminate the threat.
§ 87(2)(g)
Allegation C—Abuse of Authority: PO Cornell Enoch did not obtain medical treatment for $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$. It is undisputed that $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ jumped out of his window. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ stated that he did this as his pit bull told him to. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ stated that upon landing on the ground, he felt as though he broke his knee. He was immediately apprehended by PO Enoch, who was also his arresting officer, and he told PO Enoch that he needed medical treatment for his leg. He was transported to the 44th Precinct stationhouse and he continued to ask every officer, while he was in the holding cell, for medical treatment. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ was transferred to an individual cell as he was spacing and yelling. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ was transferred to an individual cell as he was more concerned about his dog. He did not request medical treatment after he was released from police custody (encl. C1-11). None of the other civilians were present for this allegation. PO Enoch stated that $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ did not request medical treatment and that he did not appear to be injured from jumping out his window (encl. I1-16). $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ jumped out of his window onto an awning and then dropped down from the awning onto the street. He did not appear to have trouble walking and he only complained about his dog being shot. $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ sarest report, filed by PO Enoch, states that his physical condition appears normal. None of the police documents show $\frac{87(2)(0)}{2}$ being injured during this incident (encl. J1-2).
