A.POM Gennaro Elvezio	Abuse: In the vicinity of Tilden Avenue and Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn, Police Officer Gennaro Elvezio refused to provide his shield number to $87(2)(b)
B.SGT John Filippi	Abuse: At the 70th Precinct Stationhouse in Brooklyn, Sergeant John Filippi did not process $87(2)(b) s complaint regarding officers.

On January 23, 2018, $87(2)(b) filed this complaint with 311, generating reference number 1-1-1517182879. On January 24, 2018, the complaint was forwarded to IAB, generating original log number 18-3145. On January 30, 2018, the complaint was received at the CCRB.
On January 23, 2018, at approximately 4:51 p.m., PO Gennaro Elvezio and PO Douglas Godio, both of the 70 th Precinct, stopped $87(2)(b) s vehicle in the vicinity of Tilden Avenue and Flatbush Avenue in Brooklyn. PO Elvezio issued $87(2)(b) a parking summons.

it (Allegation A: Abuse of Authority, $87(2)(9) followed the officers' vehicle to the intersection of Clarendon Road and Flatbush Avenue, where PO Godio issued $87(2)(b) two additional summonses: one for not wearing a seatbelt and another for $87(2)(b) t. At approximately 8:50 p.m., § 87(2)(b) went to the 70 th Precinct Stationhouse to file a complaint against the officers. Sgt. John Filippi of the 70 th Precinct allegedly failed to process s complaint against the officers (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority, § 87(2)(g)
provided two videos from this incident [linked to BRs 01 and 02, summarized in BRs 03 and 04]. The first video captures the officers as they drive away from the first stop at Tilden Avenue and Flatbush Avenue. §87(2)(b) comments that [PO Elvezio] did not want to provide him with his badge number. The footage does not capture $87(2)(b) requesting PO Elvezio's badge number. The second video captures the subsequent stop at Clarendon Road and Flatbush Avenue. The footage shows $87(2)(b) requesting PO Elvezio's name and badge number, which PO Elvezio provides.

PO Elvezio was interviewed at the CCRB on April 11, 2018 [BR 06]. He stated that after drafting the summons, he returned to $87(2)(b) seems to which the summons was upset about receiving the summons but PO Elvezio did not recall what $87(2)(6) was saying. PO Elvezio did not recall whether $87(2)(6) requested his badge number at any point during this encounter.
Moreover, PO Elvezio did not recall whether $87(2)(b) said anything to him as he returned to his police vehicle. Once PO Elvezio returned to his patrol vehicle, he and PO Godio drove away.
PO Godio was interviewed at the CCRB on April 12, 2018 [BR 07]. He stated that when PO Elvezio returned to $87(2)(b) s vehicle, PO Elvezio explained why he pulled $87(2)(b) over and issued him the summons. §87(2)(b) appeared "distraught" and was clearly upset about being issued a summons. §87(2)(b) yelled and cursed at the officers and continued yelling as PO Elvezio returned to the patrol vehicle. However, PO Godio did not hear $87(2)(6) request PO Elvezio's badge number.
Video footage [embedded below] provided by shows a marked patrol vehicle driving away from $87(2)(b) s vehicle. $87(2)(b) is shown outside of his vehicle saying, "I'm stopping you" to the vehicle as it passes. It is unclear if the windows to the police vehicle are open. Once $87(2)(6) re-enters his vehicle, he comments that [PO Elvezio] did not want to give him his badge number.

called the number listed on the flier, it connected him to the same 311 system he contacted earlier. §87(2)(b) did not have the copy of the flier with him at the time of his CCRB statement Sgt. Filippi was interviewed at the CCRB on May 16, 2018 [BR 08]. He stated that was upset about his summonses and expressed that he wanted to file a complaint against the officers involved. Sgt. Filippi informed $87(2)(b) of the ways $87(2)(b) could file a complaint, including a call to 311 or by mailing a letter to the CCRB. He also showed a flier that notes the ways to make a complaint, which is posted by the T/S Desk.
$87(2)(b) then stated that he wanted to file the complaint at the command. Sgt. Filippi provided with a copy of the "CCRB fax sheet" for him to fill out. When asked what kind of information is obtained on the fax sheet, Sgt. Filippi responded that he had not really looked at the document and said that all he knew was that it was stored behind the desk, that the civilian must fill it out, and that the sergeant is to then call the CCRB and make a Command Log entry.
Sgt. Filippi instructed $87(2)(b) to fill out the form; however, $87(2)(b) left without returning the completed form to Sgt. Filippi. Sgt. Filippi assumed that $87(2)(b) was upset when he left the stationhouse; however, there was nothing specific about $87(2)(b) s behavior or comments as he exited the stationhouse that led Sgt. Filippi to believe he was still upset. Sgt.
Filippi was not aware of §87(2)(b) receiving a copy of the CCRB flier that is posted in the stationhouse. Sgt. Filippi believed he made a Command Log entry with $87(2)(b) s pedigree information and a description of the clothes he was wearing.
As per the 70 th Precinct Roll Call [BR 10], PO Shane Ellers and PO Michael Mazzella were both assigned to Stationhouse Security. § 87(2)(9) PO Ellers and PO Mazzella were both interviewed on May 16, 2018 [BRs 11 and 12, respectively]. PO Mazzella clarified that he was assigned to the Cell Attendant and PO Ellers confirmed that he was assigned to exterior Stationhouse Security. Neither officer recalled this incident.
The Command Log from the 70 th Precinct [BR 09] shows that a "CCRB" entry was prepared at 8:50 p.m., noting that $87(2)(b) wanted to make a complaint against [the] officer who issued him a summons. The entry further notes that §87(2)(b) was given the statistical sheet but did not want to fill it out. §87(2)(b) was informed of the four ways to make a complaint and stated he would do it online.
