Synopsis

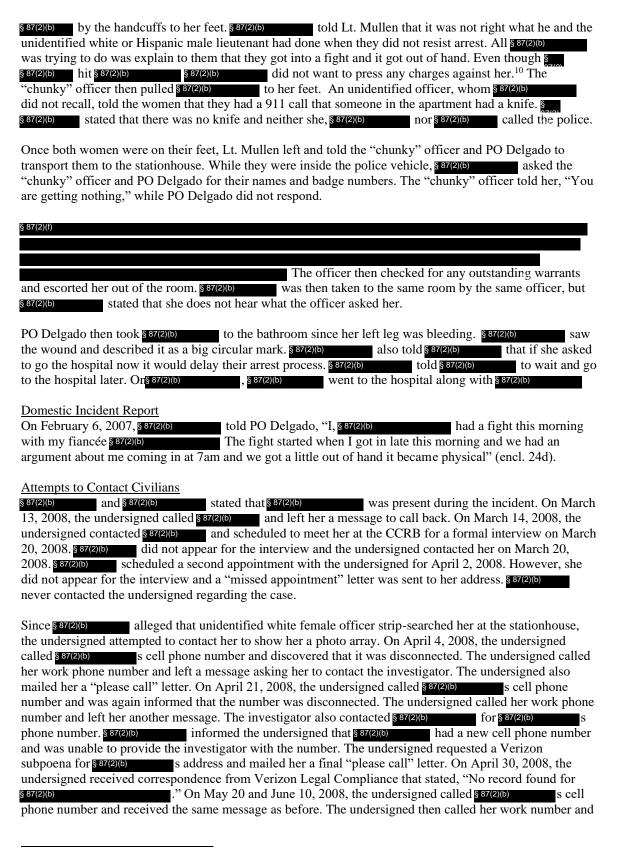

filed this complaint by phone with the Internal Affairs Bureau on February 7, 2008. The complaint was referred under log number 08-05039, and it was received at the CCRB on February 11, 2008. On February 6, 2008, at approximately 7:00am, 387(2)(b) called 911 and reported that her girlfriend, 887(2)(b) had threatened her with a knife. Lt. Brian Mullen, PO Terrance Delgado, PO Victor Cardona, and PO Chris Acker, all from the 44 th Precinct, responded to 887(2)(b) in the Bronx.
Once the officers arrived at the location, $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) were talking inside the bathroom. The officers banged on the bathroom door and told the women to open the door. Once $37(2)(b) opened the door, she saw three unidentified officers standing in front of the bathroom door. The officers told $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) to "freeze" and pointed their weapons at them (Allegation A). At that point, one of the officers allegedly said to $87(2)(b) "Get the fuck out of the bathroom and get on the floor" (Allegation B). PO Acker and an unidentified white officer grabbed $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) for the knife. $87(2)(b) told the officers that there was no knife. Lt. Mullen allegedly told $87(2)(b) "This is fuckin' a whole bunch of lesbian bullshit" (Allegation E).	n nd).
After the lieutenant made the remark, $87(2)(6) asked him what his problem was. At that point, Lt. Mullen allegedly told her, "shut the fuck up," and swung his nightstick at her (Allegations F and G). Lt. Mullen allegedly struck $87(2)(6) with the nightstick approximately four times and allegedly repeatedly told her to "shut the fuck up" (Allegation F continued). The women were then placed under arrest for $87(2)(6)
As PO Delgado and PO Cardona transported $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) allegedly asked them for their names and shield numbers. PO Cardona allegedly told her, "Yo are getting nothing," while PO Delgado did not respond (Allegations H and I). Once at the stationhouse, $87(2)(b) alleged that an unidentified female officer strip-searched her in the restroom (Allegation J and $87(2)(b) were released after they decided not to press charges against each other).

The officers were banging on the apartment door for quite a while before $87(2)(b) opened the door. Before $87(2)(b) opened the door, Lt. Mullen heard noises coming from inside the apartment. Mullen struck $37(2)(b) she continued to fight him. Less than a minute later, Lt. Mullen was finally able to roll $37(2)(b) over and place her in handcuffs. Before using his nightstick, Lt. Mullen stated that he did not use any other forms of physical force except for pulling her arms. Lt. Mullen explained that he was trying to grab her hands in order to control her. were then transported to the stationhouse. However, the lieutenant did not recall who escorted the women to the stationhouse, nor did he recall if the knife was recovered. At the stationhouse, Lt. Mullen did not have contact with the women and he stated that he was in and out of the stationhouse during the day. Lt. Mullen also did not recall if the women went to the hospital for medical attention.

Undisputed Facts It is undisputed that $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) had an argument that turned into a physical altercation. After the altercation, $87(2)(b) called 911 and reported that $87(2)(b) was attempting to stab her. Lt. Mullen, PO Delgado, PO Cardona, and PO Acker responded to the location. $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) resisted arrest and Lt. Mullen struck $87(2)(b) with his nightstick. Both women were then placed under arrest for assaulting each other.
Disputed Facts § 87(2)(g)
Assessment of Evidence $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) had a verbal dispute after $87(2)(b) returned home from a nightclub. The argument between the women became physical and $87(2)(b) testified that she struck $87(2)(b) in the face and pushed her against the wall. $87(2)(b) testified that she never struck $87(2)(b) s roommate, $87(2)(b) testified that she never struck $87(2)(b) came in between the women and separated them. At this point, $87(2)(b) locked herself in the bathroom, called the police, and reported that $87(2)(b) attempted to stab her with a knife.
Lt. Mullen and Officers Delgado, Cardona, and Acker arrived at $87(2)(b) s apartment after they received the radio call regarding an assault in progress with a knife. Once at the location, Lt. Mullen and PO Delgado stated that $87(2)(b) let them inside the apartment and informed them that $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) were fighting and a knife was involved. Lt. Mullen testified that he saw evidence of a physical altercation when he saw hair and blood on the floor. The lieutenant also testified that the apartment was messy and heard screaming inside the bathroom. Lt. Mullen pushed open the door and observed $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(b) and $87(2)(c) exited the bathroom on their own. PO Delgado also testified that he saw the women exit the bathroom on their own.

In her phone statement, $87(2)(b) alleged that once the bathroom door was opened, six officers had their weapons pointed at them. When interviewed, $87(2)(b) alleged three officers had their weapons pointed at them. $87(2)(b) alleged it was one officer who had his weapon pointed at her. None of the officers admitted that they had their weapons drawn or pointed during the incident. $87(2)(g) alleged that once the officers had their weapons drawn one of the officers instructed her to "get the fuck out of the bathroom." $87(2)(b) did not mention the allegation in her statement and stated that an officer instructed her to "freeze." None of the officers testified that they heard another officer use profanity toward $87(2)(b) $87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(g)
During her CCRB interview, $87(2)(b) initially alleged that once they exited the bathroom, PO Acker and an unidentified white male officer with blue-green eyes grabbed her and $87(2)(b) and slammed them to the floor. Later in the same interview, $87(2)(b) stated that when the officers instructed her and $87(2)(b) to exit the bathroom, they complied with the officers' instructions and lay on the floor on their own. $87(2)(b) initially testified that $87(2)(b) exited the bathroom first and she immediately closed the door and jumped in the tub so that the officers would not see her bruised eye. When she heard a "boom" outside the bathroom door, $87(2)(b) opened the door and saw an unidentified uniformed officer pointing his weapon at her. At this point, the officer told her to "freeze," pulled her by her shirt, and slammed her face down to the ground. $87(2)(b) later stated that when she saw the unidentified officer point his weapon at her, she closed the door, and jumped into the tub. The unidentified officer then entered the bathroom pulled her out of the bathtub, and out of the bathroom, and threw her to the floor.
Lt. Mullen testified that when he pushed open the bathroom door he grabbed $87(2)(b) and pulled her out of the bathroom. He did not state that he pulled $87(2)(b) out of the bathroom. PO Acker testified that he did not enter the apartment while Officers Cardona and Delgado denied that they had physical contact with the women inside the apartment. $87(2)(g) also alleged that Lt. Mullen told her to "Shut the fuck up. This is fuckin' a whole bunch of lesbian bullshit." § 87(2)(b) testified that she did hear the lieutenant say "shut the fuck up," but she did not hear the lieutenant say the remark based on § 87(2)(b) s s sexual orientation. § 87(2)(9)
In her CCRB interview, $87(2)(b) alleged that only Lt. Mullen struck her with a nightstick, and that he did so approximately four times. In her phone statement, $87(2)(b) alleged that Lt. Mullen and PO Acker struck her approximately seven times with their nightsticks. $87(2)(b) claimed that Lt. Mullen and another unidentified lieutenant struck $87(2)(b) with their nightsticks. $87(2)(b) claimed that she was lying on her right side when Lt. Mullen was hitting her $87(2)(b) stated that $87(2)(b) stated was lying on her back with her left leg in the air higher than her right leg bent toward her chest. Lt. Mullen testified that $37(2)(5) was kicking him and flailing her arms at him. He stated that $37(2)(5) did not comply with his instructions when he told her to stop kicking him. The lieutenant tried to grab her legs, but was unable to do so. For that reason, Lt. Mullen admitted that he struck $37(2)(5) twice on her legs with his nightstick. PO Delgado testified that he observed $37(2)(5) hit Lt. Mullen on the back near his right shoulder. He also saw her kicking the lieutenant. $37(2)(6) alleged that as a result of Lt. Mullen striking her with his nightstick she received injuries to her breast, lip, and left leg. PO Delgado noted in the domestic incident report that $\frac{37(2)(b)}{2}$ and $\frac{37(2)(b)}{2}$ and $\frac{37(2)(b)}{2}$ and testified that they had a physical altercation inside the apartment before the officers arrived at the scene. $87(2)(b) stated that the fight lasted for five minutes. PO Delgado and PO Cardona testified that once they first saw the women they had visible injuries to their faces $87(2)(9) claimed that she asked PO Delgado and a "chunky" officer for their names and shield numbers. §87(2)(b) stated that PO Delgado and PO Cardona transported them to the stationhouse. §87(2)(b) did not mention in her statement that §87(2)(b) requested the officers' names and shield numbers. Both officers denied that §87(2)(b) requested their identification. §87(2)(g) alleged that while she was at the stationhouse she was strip-searched by an unidentified white female officer. The undersigned attempted to contact $37(2)(b) to see if she could identify a potential subject officer. However, $87(2)(b) did not contact the undersigned regarding the case.
