As Sgt. Melendez was searching the car, $87(2)(6) was on his cell phone with 911. He told 911 that he was being harassed. PO Cooke told him he wasn't supposed to be on the phone. PO Cooke gave him a summons and informed $87(2)(6) that he was getting a ticket for neglecting to use his turn signal. $87(2)(6) described PO Cooke as white with short blond hair. CIVILIAN/OFFICER HISTORY has made one previous complaint with the CCRB. The case was closed complainant uncooperative. § 37(2)(b) alleged that an officer stopped his vehicle and threatened him with force and used offensive language. Sgt. Melendez has no previous substantiated CCRB allegations. Conclusions and Recommendations UNDISPUTED FACTS It is established that Sgt. Melendez and PO Cooke stopped §87(2)(b) in the vicinity of § in Brooklyn and issued him a summons for failing to signal a right turn. ISSUES IN DISPUTE CREDIBILITY ANAYLSIS § 87(2)(g) not mention in his brief interview prior to his interview at the CCRB that the officers frisked him. PO Cooke portrayed § 87(2)(b) as an aggressive driver who was driving in an unsafe manner. PO Cooke claimed that $37(2)(6) failed to signal twice and was driving at an excessive rate of speed. PO Cooke alleged that he did not give § 37(2)(b) a ticket for speeding because he did not have a speed gun. Sgt. Melendez did not observe $87(2)(b) s infraction and did not observe $87(2)(b) make other infractions as they followed him. PO Cooke claimed that $87(2)(b) combative and antagonizing. He felt that §87(2)(b) was trying to get him to do something improper. Sgt. Melendez claimed that $87(2)(b) was calm and speaking in low tones. PO Cooke claimed that $ $87(2)(b) was inside the car when he approached and questioned him. He maintained that $87(2)(b) did not get out of the vehicle until they were back in the car. PO Cooke also stated that $87(2)(b) pulled over. Sgt. Melendez, however, stated that § 37(2)(b) parked his vehicle and got out and began to walk away from it when they stopped him. The officers both denied that $37(2)(b) was frisked or that his vehicle was searched. OFFICER IDENTIFICATION PO Cooke is identified as the officer who wrote §87(2)(b) the summons. PO Cooke admitted to as much in his interview at the CCRB. §87(2)(b) provided an accurate description of PO Cooke. Sgt. Melendez admitted that he was on the location with PO Cooke. Sgt. Melendez and PO Cooke both explained that a change in tour occurred when PO William Nass made an arrest earlier in the tour. PO Cooke had originally been in a vehicle with PO Nass. $87(2)(b) also provided an accurate description of Sgt. Melendez. § 87(2)(g) Allegation A: Sgt. Roberto Melendez frisked § 87(2)(b) claims that Sgt. Melendez frisked him in front of his aunt's house. Sgt. Melendez denied that
